

Describe the people you hate

or

People I Hate

I am a self-respecting man. I do not like flatter others. But I do not mind giving praise where it is rightly due. I hate flatterers. Flatterers are extremely selfish persons in to serve their own selfish end they like to flatter persons in authority. They tells lies if it suits the boss to hear lies. They condemn a man in the presence of the boss even if the man criticized is a good person. They have no self-respect. I hate haughty persons. I hate those people who are proud of their wealth. I hate those persons who are mean and cowardly. I hate fanatical people. I halt those who exploit others. I also hate those persons who place their own selves above the country. I also dislike those men who do not have any love for other human beings. Above all, I hate liars, cheaters and unprincipled people.
