WARMING UP!, WARMING UP! - INTERVIEWS [PAGE 39]

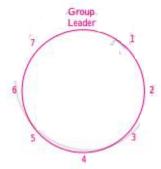

Warming Up! | Q 1 | Page 39

Building a Story

Form groups of eight. The group leader prepares slips of paper for each of the seven points given below and distributes them among the others. The group sits in a circle, taking their seats according to the number on the slip they have. Then each one completes the sentence on his/her slip without sharing it with the others. The group leader collects the slips and reads all the sentences aloud as one continuous passage. Does the story make sense? The group then works on the story to make it more meaningful and interesting.

Why?: Form groups of five. Choose a familiar character from any one of the epics you know. One person from the group plays the role of that character. Others in the group frame questions related to that character's life. The condition is that all the questions should begin with 'Why ...?'. They interview the character using these 'Why-?' questions. Practice and present the interview in the classroom.

SOLUTION

Epic: Ramayana

Character: Lord Rama

List of Why questions.

- 1. Why were you banished from your kingdom?
- 2. Why did your brother Laxman accompany you to the forest?
- 3. Why did you leave Sita and Laxman in the hut?
- 4. Why did Ravana kidnap Sita?
