

Long Answer Questions

Q.1. How does the working of the government take place?

Ans. (i) The government works through the chief minister and the minister.

(ii) These people further govern through various departments like public works department, the agriculture, the health department, the education department and so on.

(iii) They are answerable to the questions asked in the legislative assembly and convince people by giving examples of work done by them practically.

(iv) For the people, media, both print and electronic, keep a coverage of what the ministers do.

(v) The government also responds to people's queries through press conferences.

Q.2. Discuss the process of formation of state government.

Ans. For the formation of government in the state, firstly a general election is conducted to elect representatives from various constituencies. The party which earns more than half of the total seats is said to be in majority. That party is usually called for forming the government. Sometimes, no party gains clear majority. In this situation, the party with maximum members tries to form government with support of like minded parties. The party that proves majority, Governor invites him to form Government. Otherwise Re-election takes place.