Let Us Know:

Pronouns:

Pronouns are used in the place of a noun. When we have to repeat a noun, we should use a pronoun instead of a noun.

Types of Pronouns:

1. Subjective Pronoun:

Acts as the subject of a sentence. It performs the action of the verb.

Subjective Pronouns:

I, We, You, They, He, She, It

Example :

1. I went to the post office yesterday.
2. She talked to her friend on the cell phone.
3. You walked 3 miles yesterday.
4. They live near my house.
5. We work together as a team.
6. It is a beautiful scene on the wall.
7. He likes tomato soup.

2. Objective Pronoun:

Replaces a noun and functions as an object in the sentence.

Objective Pronouns:

Me, Us, You, Him, Her, It, Them

Example :

1. she walked out to meet them.
2. They said that it was good to see her.
3. She told me all about it:
4. Prem called Sheela and me for lunch.
5. Grandma came to the hospital with us.
6. The teacher gave him an answer.

7. I bought these gifts for you.

3. Possessive Pronoun:

Takes the place of a noun phrase to show ownership.

Possessive Pronouns:

My, Our, Your, Their, His Her, Its

Example :

1. Your lunch is ready.
2. Go to her birthday party.
3. The dog is licking its bone.
4. This is my sister's house.
5. This is his computer.
6. Their dog barks all time.
7. You can use our car.

4. Reflexive Pronoun:
