

Chapter 6: Rules Are for Everyone

EXERCISES [PAGE 31]

Exercises | Q 1. (a) | Page 31

Fill in the blank.

Our society works according to certain _____.

SOLUTION

Our society works according to certain rules.

Exercises | Q 1. (b) | Page 31

Fill in the blank.

The Constitution of Independent India abolished _____.

SOLUTION

The Constitution of Independent India abolished untouchability.

Exercises | Q 1. (c) | Page 31

Fill in the blank.

Wrong customs and traditions cause the _____ of some sections of society.

SOLUTION

Wrong customs and traditions cause the neglect of some sections of society.

Exercises | Q 2. (a) | Page 31

Answer in one sentence.

Why are rules made?

SOLUTION

Rules are made to specify duties and responsibilities of every person.

Exercises | Q 2. (b) | Page 31

Answer in one sentence.

Which values have been a part of our social life since ancient times?

SOLUTION

The values of non-violence and peace have been a part of our social life since ancient times.

Exercises | Q 2. (c) | Page 31

Answer in one sentence.

What are the big obstacles in our society?

SOLUTION

Poverty and lack of education are the big obstacles in our society.

Exercises | Q 3. (a) | Page 31

Answer in short.

Which unjust customs have been banned by law?

SOLUTION

1. The unjust customs of Sati and child marriage have been banned by law.
2. The custom of asking for dowry has also been banned by law.
3. The use of magic for cheating people has been banned in Maharashtra.

Exercises | Q 3. (b) | Page 31

Answer in short.

Why do we need to make laws for the protection of the environment?

SOLUTION

We need to make laws for the protection of the environment; because

1. Most of our needs are fulfilled by nature.
2. There is a need to conserve natural resources as the same should be available in enough quantity for our future generations.