Solutions

D. Short-answer questions:

1. Diversity is the state or fact of being different and unique.
2. In our neighborhood there stays Mr. John, a Christian; just next door is the house of a Muslim family, the Khans; across the road lives a Hindu family, Mr. and Mrs. Sharna. This is certainly an example of diversity.
3. It adds variety and enjoyment to our life and makes us tolerant and open minded by giving us a chance to live with people who are different from us.
4. Food habits, regional languages, variety in dresses, equal respect for all religions and celebration of different religious and harvest festivals.
