11. Left in Charge

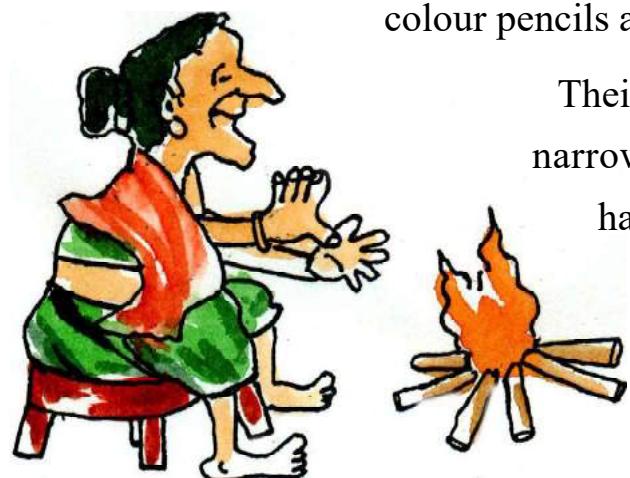

Maa and Bapu had put on their new clothes. They were going to town to sell the vegetables grown in their small field. Bhola was very happy. He was not going with his parents. He was left in charge to take care of Dadima (80 years old), a calf, a kid, a rabbit, ducks, a hen with chicks and the small vegetable field.

His mother warned him. “Don’t forget to feed the cattle and the birds. Keep an eye on the rabbit. It is playing there on the green grass in the vegetable field.”

His father advised him, “Take care of Dadima, keep her room warm with charcoal and give her warm milk. Give her medicine on time.”

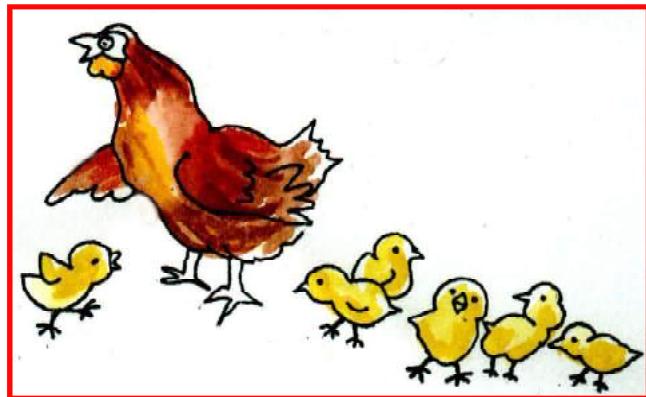

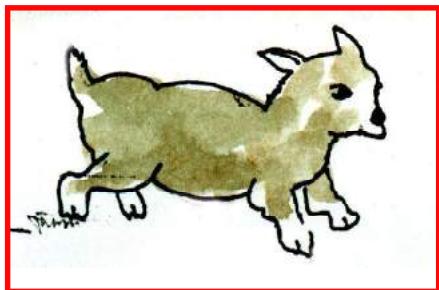

Bhola promised nodding his head. He reminded them to bring some sweets, colour pencils and a drawing book.

Their bullock cart was going through the narrow street of the village. The waving hands of parents were still visible. Bhola helped Dadima to lie down on the cot lying in a corner of the courtyard. He went to the backyard to bring some coal for the ‘angithi’ to keep Dadima warm, as she was feeling very cold. He saw the calf making sound ‘Mo - oo - oo’. “Oh! you want some grass!” Bhola kept down his bag, picked up a bundle of grass and ran to the calf.

In the corner of the courtyard, he saw the kid jumping and crying “Mein ... Wha-a-at about Me-ee-ee?”

He kept down his bundle of grass and ran outside the house to get some fresh green leaves for the kid. Only then he saw the rabbit in the vegetable field. He forgot to collect leaves for the kid and rushed towards the rabbit. With a stick, he pushed the rabbit back to its place. Coming back to the house, he found the hen with its chicks making noise - ‘Kut - Kut Kuttakakoon’.

He jumped to get some corn in the basket for them. There in the courtyard an army of duck and ducklings was marching, making noise ‘Quack-Quack’ Bhola kept his basket of corn on the floor. He ran to get some water from the well behind the house and came back with a bucket full of water. He kept the bucket also in the middle of the courtyard for the ducks and feeling tired went to the verandah where Dadima was sleeping in the sun.

He rolled down on the floor and went to sleep. A loud barking woke up Dadima. She cried, ‘Oh, My God!’ ‘What have you done, Bhola?’ Bhola sprang on his feet, blinking his eyes. He could see the ducks flapping their wings. They had rolled down the corn on the courtyard floor.

The hen and her chicks were feeding themselves. Outside the house, the goat was chewing some green leaves of vegetable on the vegetable patch. The rabbit was trying to go towards the well; the calf was running and jumping here and there with some grass in its mouth.

Suddenly, he heard the jingling bells of the bullock cart coming near the house. He ran to it and jumped into the bullock cart. Clinging to his mother’s lap, he murmured, ‘Oh! What a lot there was to do in the house, Maa!’

They all went inside the house with the things. The parents noticed that no one was complaining or making noise - not even the hen and chicks, ducks and ducklings, the kid and the calf. Dadima was sleeping in her cot. Bapu patted Bhola’s shoulder, “So, our little one.... ‘left in charge’, how was the day?”

They all smiled slowly. Bhola was happy to see the things that Maa and Bapu had brought for him.

15. A Nickel's Worth of Fun

"I found a nickel!", Jerry cried.

"So what?" his friend Bruce asked.

"Now I can buy a birthday present for my little sister, Sally," Jerry replied.

"A nickel isn't worth much. You can't buy anything for a nickel," Bruce said.

"Yes, I can," Jerry answered.

"What?", Bruce asked.

Jerry drew a deep breath. Finally he said, "I am going shopping with Sally and my mother this afternoon. I'm sure we will find a really special gift." Bruce just laughed.

After lunch, Jerry, Sally, and their mother went shopping. They visited a toy store and a dime store. Jerry searched in each store. He couldn't buy anything for Sally because everything cost more than a nickel. "What can I buy for a nickel?", Jerry finally asked his mother.

"A few pieces of gum," Mother replied.

"But I don't think that would be good for Sally. Why not give her a picture that you drew instead?"

"I will do that too. I still want to get a gift Sally will always remember," Jerry decided. "So I'll keep searching."

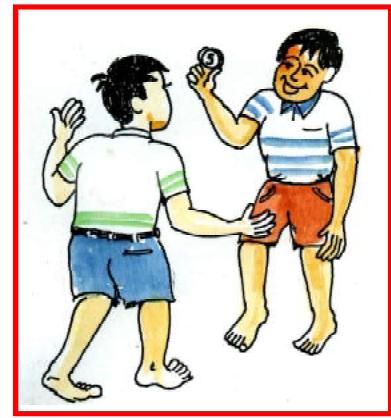

Then, the three of them went shopping at a food store. Jerry searched for a present, then he stopped in front of a sign.

Jerry looked at the white, wheat and honey bread. "Even marked down, they cost too much", he decided.

Then Jerry saw a crushed loaf. "I can buy that!" he decided.

"But what will Sally do with it?" Mother asked.

"If we can stop at the lake on the way home, I'll show you," Jerry replied.

Soon Jerry, Sally, and mother were standing by the lake. A few ducks came swimming by. Jerry gave his little sister the loaf of crushed bread.

“For me?”, Sally asked. She could not remember ever before having so much bread to feed the ducks.

“All for you,” Jerry said, “Happy birthday.”

Sally took some bread and broke it into little bits. She began to throw them into the water. This soon drew a crowd of ducks around them.

“ You don’t have to crowd,” Sally said smiling, “because this time I have enough for everybody.”

A few birds came flying by. Sally began to throw some bread on the grass for them. Then she watched as they landed and ate. “This is my best present ever”, she said. “Will you buy me a loaf of bread again , Jerry?”

“The next time if I find a nickel,” Jerry promised. When Jerry saw Bruce again, the first thing his friend asked was, “Well, were you able to find anything that cost a nickel? “Yes ,” Jerry replied.

“What?”, Bruce asked in surprise. “ I found a nickel’s worth of fun” , Jerry said smiling . “That’s the most wonderful birthday present of all.”

16. Women for Trees

Bhalapur is a village nearly 84 kilometers from the block office of Mohla in the Rajnandagaon district of Chhattisgarh. Today, on what was a 12-hectare plot of deforested land, stands a dense green forest. In the mid eighties, Vikram of Bhalapur organised all the women in the village, largely dalits and adivasis, into Mahila Mandal.

The Mahila Mandal had discussions on village problems. It was evident from the discussions that the greatest problem was collecting fire wood. The village forest was shrinking. Thanks to the felling of trees by insensitive people.

The forestland at the time was full of stumps of felled trees. For protection from grazing animals, the women dug deep trenches all around the deforested area. They stood up as guards against poachers and timber mafia.

Soon leaves started to sprout on the stumps. Today, a dense forest stands on the outskirts of the village. The dry twigs fulfill the locals' need for fire wood and the biodiversity of the new forest is a reward of their efforts. Later, plantations were done by the locals. The successful initiative has also inspired those in the village who had initially opposed the effort. It is not big projects and money that will protect the forests. But if due importance is given to local needs, people will come forward themselves to protect our forests.
