

LESSON - 13

TWO LITTLE PARROTS

Two little parrots
Sitting on a tree,
Sitting on a tree.
Talking about you and me,
You and me.
Flowers smiling to them,
Smiling to them,
Said, "Why do you eat,
Chillies and chillies all the time.
Red and green one and all."
Parrots said, "Red for our beaks,
And green for our feathers,
We eat chillies all the time."

I. New words

chillies

beaks

feathers

II. Read and write

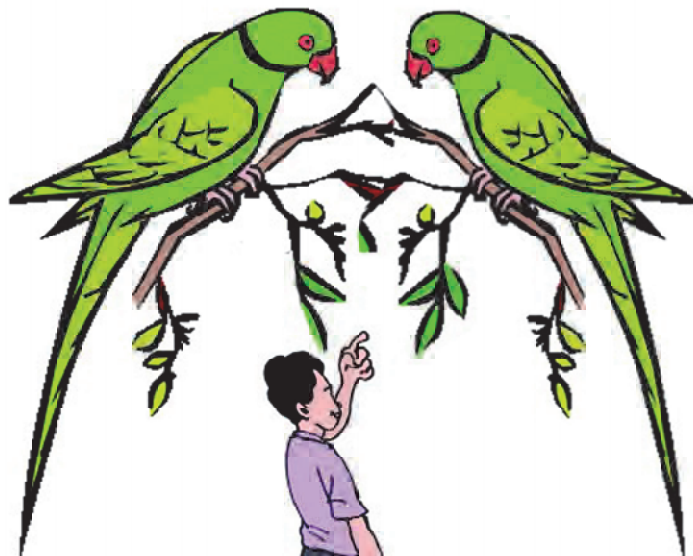

1. Where are the parrots sitting?
2. What are they talking about?
3. Who are smiling at them?
4. Why do they eat green and red chillies all the time?

III. Say aloud

little, parrots, flowers, chillies, beaks, feathers

IV. Let's talk

1. Do you want a parrot as a pet? Why?
2. Tell three things about parrots.
3. Have you seen parrots other than of green colour?
4. Where have you seen them?
5. Look at the picture, imagine and tell your friends what the parrots may be talking.

V. Vocabulary

(A) Write the rhyming words :

tree ----- eat ----- time -----

all -----

(B) Fill in the blanks with suitable words :

(chillies, red, green, parrot, feathers)

I have a. It is in colour. Its are green too. It has a beak. It likes to eat Once I say anything to Mitthu. It repeats it many times.

VI. Fun time

Colour the chilli red and the parrot green. Write what you know about a parrot.

