Q.1. How is growing of children different in Madhya Pradesh?

Ans. (i) In 1960s, from Class VI onwards, girls and boys went to separate schools in MP.

(ii) Girls' school was different from boys' school. They had a central courtyard where they played in total seclusion and safety from the outside world.

(iii) The boys' school had no such courtyard and had a big playground.

(iv) In the evening, boys watched as school girls crowded the streets.

(v) Boys used the street to stand idle, while girls walked in groups as street for girls was simply a place to get straight home.
