Question: What do you notice about the beginning and the ending of the poem?

Solution:

In the beginning of the poem the tree is calm & silent & in the ending it ends with motionless & empty level.

Question: To what is the bird's movement compared?
What is the basis for the comparison?

Solution:

The goldfinch's movement is compared to that of a lizard. The basis of the comparison is the sleek, abrupt and alert movements of a lizard. The same kinds of movements are observed when the goldfinch arrives on the laburnum tree.

Question: Why is the image of the engine evoked by the poet?

Solution:

The engine is the source of energy to run machine. It is compared to bird as she is too a source of energy for her family. As without engine a machine can't work in the same without a bird her family can't survive.

Question: What do you like most about the poem?

Solution:

I like the simplicity and pictorial presentation of the poem. The comparison between bird's movement with machine and Lizard made in nice way. Also chirruping & trilling of goldfinch.

Question: What does the phrase "her barred face identity mask" mean?

Solution:

The phrase means that the bird's barred or covered face becomes her identity mask recognition.
