

The Great Stone Face 1

Read the given passages carefully and answer the questions that follow by choosing the correct alternative:

(1)

So his mother told him a story that her own mother had told her, when she was younger than Ernest; that at some future day, a little child should be born near here, who was destined to become the greatest and noblest person of his time and whose face, in manhood, should bear an exact resemblance to the Great Stone Face. Many still had faith in this old prophecy. But others took it to be nothing but idle talk. At all events the great man of the prophecy had not yet appeared.

(2)

The Great Stone Face was a work of nature, formed on the perpendicular side of a mountain by some immense rocks, which had been thrown together so that, when viewed at a proper distance, they resembled the features of a human face. If the spectator approached too near, he lost the outline of the enormous face and could see only a heap of gigantic rocks, piled one upon another. But seen from a distance, the clouds clustering about it, The Great Stone Face seemed positively to be alive.
