PREFACE

The English textbook for standard VI has been prepared following the guidelines given in the National Curriculum Framework, 2005. It has been created to make English language learning both effective and enjoyable. The aim has been to balance learning the structures and vocabulary of the language with learning their use in everyday life.

The activities have been carefully graded to allow a gradual building of language proficiency. The lessons provide effective individual and collaborative learning in pairs and groups and enable differentiation in multilevel classrooms. Each unit focuses on the themes of natural and social world to stimulate curiosity and imagination, engaging both heart and mind. An ICT Corner has been introduced in each unit for the first time in a State Board Text Book to develop current digital literacy skills .

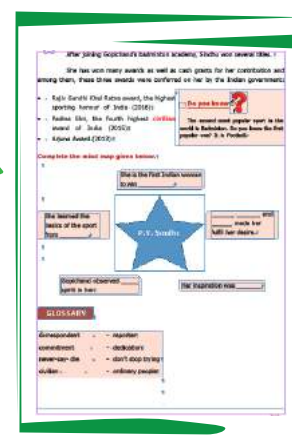

How to use the book

- The Second Term English Book for Standard VI has two units.
- Each unit is planned for a month.
- Each unit is divided into sections and each section is designed to initiate and sustain the Active Learning process.

- Each unit starts with an introduction of the theme anchored by two girls Ayesha and Madhi.
- The pictorial warm up page will help activate students own knowledge and ideas of the topic.
- The digital warm up can be used for visualizing the theme to motivate and interest learners.

- In-Text questions in each section can be used for discussion and to check and develop comprehension skills.
- Digital glossary can be used for hearing correct pronunciation and visualizing words.
- The 'Do You Know?' box can be used to enhance general knowledge while initiating spoken language.

- The illustrations in Picto Grammar will enable understanding of grammar terms in a fun and easy way.
- Digital Grammar Games can be used to reinforce learning to encourage students to learn by doing..
- Language Check Point can highlight points of usage to avoid the common mistakes.

- Students can be taken through all the steps of writing with the help of pictures and prompts.
- Creative writing can be used to bring out their writing skill.
- Students can be encouraged to present or display their writings in the class .

- The warm up picture at the head of the section can be used to discuss the theme of the poem.
- The focus should be on the enjoyment of the poem through exploring imagery and rhythm.
- The supplementary section encourages extensive reading and appreciation of literature.

- Connecting to Self is based on the values of each lesson.
- Project is meant for working in groups and to develop collaborative learning.
- The development of higher order thinking skills is facilitated by the Steps to Success and Think and Answer sections.

- Students can be encouraged to extend their reading activity through e-links and Reference Books.
- Students can be helped to download the games and install them.
- The activities in ICT Corner will ensure learning language skills through doing.

WARM UP

MIRRORING

The teacher selects three pairs. The pairs are made to stand facing each other. The teacher whispers a game to each pair. One person makes a movement, the other tries to mirror the movement or copy it exactly. Then they change roles. When both have played both roles, try to coordinate movements with each other, so that both become player and mirror at the same time. Then the rest of the class have to find out which sport they are mirroring.

eg. Passing the ball, kicks for karate, bowling the ball, batting, etc.,

READING

Section I

Listen to the teacher read a diary account of a school boy and answer the questions.

Each day is a new beginning. It has so much to unfold and I had the best day at school today.

Cricket is something that I love. Today my teacher told us that we would be learning about a cricketer. I thought of Sachin, Virat Kohli and many other male players in the Indian cricket team but she introduced Mithali Dorai Raj, an Indian cricketer and the captain of the Indian women's cricket team in Tests and One Day Internationals [ODIs]. I never thought a woman could play cricket so well. It was why I have never let my little sister play cricket with me. I would tell her, "It is not for you; you had better play with girls." However, I was taken by surprise, when I learnt that Mithali started to play the game at the age of 10, and that she was selected for the Indian team at the age of 17.

Mithali Dorai Raj

Mithali lives in Hyderabad. I was interested to learn that her mother tongue is Tamil. I felt very proud that she has been widely recognised and acknowledged. She was the highest run scorer in Women's International Cricket and the only woman cricketer to surpass the 6,000-run mark in ODIs. Mithali is the first player to score seven consecutive 50s. In fact, she is nicknamed "Tendulkar of Indian women's cricket" as she is presently the all-time leading run scorer for India in all formats, including Tests, ODIs and T20s. I would love to quote what Mithali had to say about this compliment,

She said, "On the one hand, being compared to Sachin is an absolute privilege. I do not think I have achieved even half of what he did for the country. On the other, being a woman cricketer, I want people to know me for my own identity. I would rather not be compared to a male cricketer."

She indeed is an inspiration to all of us. She actually started playing cricket with her brother. When she was young, she used to go with her father to the grounds where he practised. She used to stand outside the ground, and returned the ball when it came her way. Though it was a humble start, she managed to secure a name and a place for herself. Many of us think cricket is for men; however, she broke the traditional barriers and proved that women are on par with men in every field. The government of India in recognition of her contribution to cricket conferred on her the Padma Shri Award.

And I forgot to mention about the recent achievement of our Indian women cricket team. Mithali Raj and another woman player Smriti Mandhana hit stylish half centuries and India cruised to a comfortable nine-wicket victory over South Africa in the second women's T20 International on 23 of February 2018. Mithali anchored the innings to perfection with an unbeaten 76.

Women's Cricket World Cup is older than Men's. The Women's World Cup was first held in England, in 1973, two years before the inaugural of Men's Cricket World Cup.

Now that I am inspired by her and my attitude has changed, I certainly will be happy when my little sister follows her passion...

Read the biography of P. V. Sindhu and answer the following questions.

The word Badminton will instantly bring P.V. Sindhu in everyone's mind. Pusarla Venkata Sindhu is one of the two Indian badminton players to ever win a silver medal in 2016 Olympics – the other being Saina Nehwal who has won a bronze medal in 2012 Olympics. Sindhu came to international attention when she broke into the top 20 of the BFW (Badminton World Federation) in September 2012 at the age of 17. She is one of the top five shuttlers in the women's singles category.

P.V. Sindhu

She started playing badminton at the age of eight. Though her parents were professional volleyball players, Sindhu chose badminton over volleyball because she drew inspiration from the success of Pullela Gopichand, the 2001 All England Open Badminton Champion.

Sindhu first learned the basics of the sport with the guidance of Mehboob Ali. She then joined Pullela Gopichand's 'Gopichand Badminton Academy.'

While profiling Sindhu's career, a correspondent with The Hindu wrote:

"The fact that she reports on time at the coaching camps daily, travelling a distance of 56 km from her residence, is perhaps a reflection of her willingness to fulfil her desire to be a good badminton player with the required hard work and commitment."

Gopichand seconded this opinion,

"The most striking feature in Sindhu's game is her attitude and the never-say-die spirit."

Despite P.V Sindhu being busy with her training schedules and International tournaments, she managed to attend regular school until class 9, after which all her classes were through correspondence. She did balance both her passion as well as her academics and she holds a Bachelor's degree in Commerce (B.Com).

After joining Gopichand's badminton academy, Sindhu won several titles.

She has won many awards as well as cash grants for her contribution and among them, these three awards were conferred on her by the Indian government:

- Rajiv Gandhi Khel Ratna award, the highest sporting honour of India (2016).
- Padma Shri, the fourth highest civilian award of India (2015).
- Arjuna Award (2013).

The second most popular sport in the world is Badminton. Do you know the first popular one? It is Football.

Poem

Team Work

WARM UP

What is the most essential quality required to win the game given below?

It's all very well to have courage and skill
And it's fine to be counted a star,
But the single deed with its touch of thrill
Doesn't tell the man you are;
For there's no lone hand in the game we play,
We must work to a bigger scheme,
And the thing that counts in the world to-day
Is, How do you pull with the team?
They may sound your praise and call you great,
They may single you out for fame,
But you must work with your running mate
Or you'll never win the game;
Oh, never the work of life is done
By the man with a selfish dream,
For the battle is lost or the battle is won
By the spirit of the team.
You may think it fine to be praised for skill,
But a greater thing to do
Is to set your mind and set your will
On the goal that's just in view;
It's helping your fellowman to score
When his chances hopeless seem;
It's forgetting self till the game is o're
And fighting for the team.

Think To Win

The bicycle wobbled as ten-year-old Rucha leaned forward in the seat and pumped the pedals. "Hold tight, Vishnu! I will fall!" she shouted to the boy, who ran behind, steadying the bicycle. For the past two weeks he had been teaching her to ride. "Don't worry, Ruchaji, you are doing well," he puffed. For a few moments he let go of his hold and Rucha was on her own. Of course, she did not know it and rode along smoothly. "Vishnu, stop the cycle. I want to get off," Rucha called. "Use the brake!" Vishnu called out. His voice came from some distance away and, Rucha realised that he was not holding the bicycle any more.

"I WILL FALL! I WILL FALL!" she wailed.

And, before Vishnu could reach her, the bicycle wobbled, tilted to one side and Rucha was deposited into a bush. Shaken but unhurt, Rucha cried angrily, "I told you to hold tight. I told you I would fall!" she glared at Vishnu. "But, Ruchaji, you were riding quite well and anyway you have to learn riding without someone holding the cycle, isn't it?" Vishnu explained. "See I fell, didn't I?" Rucha would not be pacified.

She stormed into the house to complain. "You fell. Doesn't matter," said her mother calmly. "We all do when we are learning to ride a cycle. At least you are not hurt." "The bicycle is too big for me," Rucha complained. "When I am in the seat, my toes barely touch the ground." Her mother explained to her that she found nothing wrong with it. Riding a cycle of that height was right for her. After all, she was growing up! "Mummy, may I ride the bicycle?" asked Seema, Rucha's sister, younger to her by three years.

"No, Seema, you cannot," Rucha cut in before her mother could answer. "When it is so high for me, how can you sit? You are much shorter." No amount of pleading helped.

There was a considerable contrast between the two sisters. Rucha was very protective of her younger sister. She was overprotective with her. Rucha herself had been overprotected. She seldom did things rashly. Even in running and playing, she would be conscious of her movements. Seema, on the other hand, was bold and prone to taking risks.

Next week, inter-house badminton matches were to be held in the school. Rucha was in the senior team. She gave up other activities and practised with her friends. "Rucha, hit harder," they told her on the day of the match.

Aruna, a very good player of their house, was expected to win. And she did. Rucha and her opponent were almost evenly matched and Rucha lost the game by a couple of points.

Their house stood second in the overall tally. "I can't seem to win," said Rucha remorsefully. "You played all right," Aruna consoled her. "The time when your opponent was at the net, if you had hit just a little harder over her head, you could have won that point."

"I know, I know," replied Rucha, "but somehow I always make such mistakes."

"You must practice more. That is all," Aruna told her.

"I suppose so," Rucha replied glumly.

"Cheer up now," Aruna told her. "At least you tried. I say, the inter-school sports meet is coming up. You are in the school's relay team, aren't you?"

"I will probably make everyone lose the race," Rucha said, still gloomy.

"Don't think that way," Aruna pleaded with her. "You run fast. We need you."

Rucha finally agreed to stand in if no better person could be found. Meanwhile, she would train with the rest of them under the new PT instructor, Prakash Sir.

He was very enthusiastic about sports and drove the children hard—praising, scolding, correcting but mostly encouraging them.

"Rucha, you are nimble and light. You can do better than that," he told her often.

"How can I do that?" Rucha confided to Aruna. "I will most probably fall."

"Don't be silly. We are all trying to better ourselves. You must try too," Aruna told her.

"Springfields have a very FAST RUNNER in their team." Shabnam, their teammate informed them. "Has anyone heard about her? It seems they call her P.T. Usha!"

Prakash Sir overheard this conversation. He took a quick decision. "The girls' relay team, gather here in five minutes," he called out. All the girls came together. "Girls, I have been watching you all. You need some more practice, more time on the field. You are not doing enough," he told them. VOCIFEROUS protests greeted this. "All right, all right, girls, calm down," he held up his hands, placating them. "Tell me, what is your goal. To WIN the race, isn't it? Not just to make an attempt. To win! Are we agreed?"

The girls murmured their assent.

"I know you have been training. You just need to give a little extra push to your efforts to win. I know all of you have it in you," he told them.

"Right, let us start with these exercises." He showed them exercises that would allow their legs to stretch more, stride faster. Then he trained them in the skill of passing the baton without losing speed. "Don't slow down when you near your next team member,"

Prakash Sir said, "Maintain your speed while passing your baton. Only when the baton has left your hand, you slow down. Do you understand? And you, who are going to receive the baton, also keep in motion, jogging. All right enough for today. Report to me same time tomorrow again." Then turning to Rucha, he said, "I want a word with you. You are apt to slow down after starting well," said Prakash Sir. "Don't do that. Maintain your speed," he advised her.

"Sir, I am not very good," Rucha said dolefully.

"No self-doubts, Rucha! This is exactly what I have been wanting to tell you. You must have a POSITIVE ATTITUDE. Don't even think of losing. See yourself winning! Think to win! Only to win! You can do it, I can feel it." Rucha went home with Prakash Sir's words ringing in her ears.

The next few days he saw the girls training extra hard. Prakash Sir was never far, even as he trained other children.

The day of the sports meet DAWNED and the children piled into buses to reach the venue. There was laughter and a great deal of joviality as Prakash Sir had seen to it that they were fit and relaxed as well. The stadium, where the meet was being held, bustled with great activity. Children from several schools were moving around checking out the different venues where particular events were to be held. Prakash Sir collected the schedule and gave the girls appropriate instructions. The Principal of the host school inaugurated the meet with a short speech and also introduced the participating schools. Then the events started. Rucha and most of the other children of their school easily got through the heats to enter the finals scheduled for the following day. The next morning, after a few individual events, it was time for the girls' relay race. Four schools had entered the finals. Rucha, Aruna, Shabnam and Neelam were Team B.

Prakash Sir gave them final words of encouragement.

"Girls, you are a good team. You can win! Go ahead and show your mettle! Good luck."

Shabnam, a tall girl, was their first runner. She would pass the baton to Neelam, Neelam would pass it to Aruna, and Aruna to Rucha, who would be finishing the race for them. The whistle blew and the first runners were off. With her long strides, Shabnam gave the team a marginal lead. But by the time Neelam had passed the baton to Aruna, both Team A and D had drawn level with her. Then, the runner of Team D fumbled and dropped the baton. Aruna ran for all she was worth, just managing to keep abreast of the runner of the Team A.

Finally, the baton was in Rucha's hand. She had already noted with dismay that she was pitted against 'P.T. Usha' of Team A.

'Just my luck!' the thought had flashed through her mind. She had quickly put that thought aside, and when the baton was passed to her, she was more than ready. She heard the shouts of her schoolmates, "Rucha, come on! Ru...cha! Ru...cha!" Out of the corner of her eye, Rucha saw 'P.T. Usha' trying to overtake her.

FLEETLY, she thought, 'Not again!' Then Prakash Sir's words came to her: 'Think to win!' The next moment, Rucha was conscious of nothing except the tape at the finishing line which she had to reach. Totally absorbed, she ran, she lost track of time and distance.

She ran on, not conscious of the fact that the race was over till Aruna called out to her, "Rucha, you have won!"

"We have won!" And she was hugging and kissing her. Prakash Sir was beaming at her and everyone was applauding her. Even 'P.T. Usha' came over to shake her hand.

"I thought I was fast, but you were simply superb!" she shook hands with her. It is always a proud moment for the winner of a medal when she is called to the victory stand, but for Rucha, it had a double meaning. She had overcome her hesitations and denials. She could win whenever she chose to!

READING

Section I

Listen to your teacher reading the first part of the letter.

Coimbatore

20.11.2017

Dear Malli,

Thanks for your letter and it was great to hear from you. You asked me to tell you about my trip to Ooty with my friends. I had the most wonderful time. Twenty girls and boys from class six went on the trip. Our class teacher Geetha madam and two others took us.

My grandmother has told me about the beautiful journey to Ooty by the toy train many times. She said that it was a spectacular trip up and down the slopes with birds and trees dancing along. Ooty is so close to Coimbatore but I have never been there nor seen that train. So I was really thrilled when the school arranged this trip. You can imagine how excited I was when I stepped into the toy train with my friends.

I looked around at the wooden chairs with cushioned seats and oil painted walls as I put my bag on the mesh of the luggage rack. I was bubbling over with excitement.

"Hi Fatima, isn't this fun?" I called out as my friend came into the compartment. "Come, sit here. I have kept a seat for you. You can keep your bag next to mine. What have you brought to eat?" "Parotta and delicious chutney. Did you see the train? It's so beautiful!" Fatima replied.

Our teacher, Geetha madam, came around to see if everyone was seated properly. "The train is about to leave so take your seats everyone," she said. Just then the train started with a jerk. It moved very slowly, leaving the station with a long hoot. Everyone clapped. The train went snaking up the steep hillside, weaving its way through forests of tall trees swaying in the breeze.

One of the boys, Muthu, said, "It is going so slowly, I can walk along its side." And he got up to go to the door.

From the other end the teacher saw him and said in a firm voice, "Muthu, go back to your seat at once." The girls sniggered and Muthu sat down with a long face.

Read the following questions and answer them.

1. Where did the boys and girls go?
2. Why did Muthu say that he could walk along its side?
3. Why did the girls snigger?

GLOSSARY

Mesh	-	Material made of a network of wire or thread
Swaying	-	Moving slowly or rhythmically
Snaking	-	Moving like a snake
Sniggered	-	Laughed in a half suppressed way

Section II

Read this section of the letter on your own. Underline the sentences that tell you about the scenes outside. Describe it to the class.

The scene outside was beautiful with the purple-blue mountains forming a lovely backdrop to the green fields and tea estates. Monkeys were racing all along the tracks. Some were in groups and some had babies clinging onto them.

"Look Fatima, doesn't that monkey look cute holding on to its mother's stomach?" I pointed excitedly. The monkeys were really bold. One of them tried to snatch a banana that a girl had in her hand, as she leaned out of the window to look at the train curving behind on the track. She let out a scream and moved back. Now it was Muthu's turn to snigger.

I looked entranced at the misty clouds which covered the mountains and moved in and out of the forests. It looked just like a dream sequence in a movie. Fatima pointed to a bubbling stream with a small waterfall.

"Look Merlin, can you see that bird there? It is such a pretty blue and has such a lovely crown," she said. Just then the train stopped suddenly with a thud.

"Oh, what happened?" asked a boy. "Hey, why has the train stopped?" shouted another passenger.

But, nothing could stop Muthu. He and his friends were the first to step out to see what had happened. Geetha madam tried to stop the children running out but they were too excited and begged to be allowed to go out. In the end the whole compartment stepped out. And what a sight greeted their eyes!

Discuss and answer the following questions.

1. Why did the girl scream?
2. Why did Muthu and his friends step out of the train?
3. Describe the beauty of the blue mountain.

GLOSSARY

Clinging - Fitting closely to the body

Scream - Cry in a high pitch

Snatch - Quickly seize (someone) in a rude or eager way

Entranced - Filled (someone) with wonder and delight, holding their entire attention

Thud - A dull sound, as that of a heavy object striking a solid surface

Toy Train

The Nilgiri Mountain Railway was built by the British in 1908. Mountain Train is another showcase of heritage of India. This rail connects Udhagamandalam and Mettupalayam. The journey is the most picturesque train ride that mesmerizes travellers of all age groups. This train travels through 208 serpentine curves, 16 tunnels, 250 bridges, waterfall hood, cliff edges and tea estates covering a distance of 26 km. The uphill journey takes almost 4 hours. In the year 2005, UNESCO declared the Nilgiri Mountain Railway as an extension of the World Heritage Site Darjeeling Himalayan Railway. Vintage Steam Locomotive is still retained as an excellent attraction to this train.

Section III

Read this section of the letter silently. Discuss with your partner and describe the incident.

There was a cute baby elephant sitting on the track! The mother elephant was nearby trumpeting loudly. The engine driver tried to coax the baby off the track with a bunch of bananas. The mother didn't let anyone near the baby. So, people stood around trying to make the baby move by making all kinds of sounds. The baby just sat there looking frightened and the mother kept trumpeting.

Finally, Muthu, the naughty boy of the class, went up to the baby with a bunch of bananas. Just as it moved to eat it, he moved backwards. He kept doing this till the baby was out on the side of the tracks. Luckily, the mother too, stopped trumpeting and watched the whole show. Everyone cheered as the baby started eating the bananas. Many bunches of bananas were piled near the baby and the mother. As they were eating, everyone got into the train and it left after a delay of half an hour. Geetha ma'am had told us that we would see elephants if we were lucky!

"Madam wouldn't have imagined we would see a wild elephant this close!" said Fatima.

It was such a fantastic trip. On a normal fast train ride, we do not notice the scenery or the landscape. It rushes by so fast. But slowly chugging up and down the beautiful mountainside was different. I will never forget the wide, wind-swept tea estates, cloud covered mountains or the swaying trees. It was enchanting to listen to the murmur of streams and waterfalls and musical bird calls. We even saw an elephant and its baby! Our whole group was so excited by the trip and they still talk about it.

Your loving friend,
Merlin

Think and answer.

Faster than fairies, faster than witches,
Bridges and houses, hedges and ditches;
And charging along like troops in a battle,
All through the meadows the horses and cattle:
All of the sights of the hill and the plain
Fly as thick as driving rain;
And ever again, in the wink of an eye,
Painted stations whistle by.
Here is a child who clambers and scrambles,
All by himself and gathering brambles;
Here is a tramp who stands and gazes;
And there is the green for stringing the daisies!
Here is a cart run away in the road,
Lumping along with man and load;
And here is a mill and there is a river:
Each a glimpse and gone forever!

Supplementary

Gulliver's Travels

Gulliver, a ship's doctor, took a job on a ship that was going on a long voyage. The voyage started well but soon things changed dramatically. The ship got caught in a violent storm and was thrown off course. Then it hit a rock and broke up completely. Six of the crew members, including Gulliver, got into a small boat and rowed until they were overturned by a big wave which came up suddenly. Gulliver was a good swimmer and he managed to swim till he reached land.

The coast appeared strange and lonely. Gulliver dragged himself along the shore. He looked for some people or houses. But there was no sign of life. Hungry and exhausted he fell on a patch of grass and fell into a deep sleep.

When Gulliver woke up he was lying on his back and the sun was in his face. When he tried to get up he found himself unable to sit up or move at all. Terrified and puzzled, he tried to turn his head. He found his arms and legs were securely tied with slender strings on each side and attached to pegs fixed on the ground. His hair, which was long and thick, was similarly tied down. He felt something moving along his body almost up to his chin. To his surprise, he saw a human being not six inches high, with a bow and arrow in his hands, and a quiver at his back. Gulliver later learnt that these creatures were called Lilliputians. Startled by this sight, Gulliver cried out and soon managed to free his left arm. The frightened Lilliputians fired dozens of tiny arrows into his hand, face, and body until he once again lay down calmly. The Lilliputians then built a stage to Gulliver's side that was about a foot and a half tall, upon which an obviously important person stood and made a ten-minute speech to Gulliver in a language he could not understand.

By now Gulliver was really hungry. With gestures he signaled to the little people that he wanted food and drink. The Lilliputians first got Gulliver to promise to behave himself and then promised to get him some food. They soon brought baskets of meat and several loaves of bread, which he ate three at a time because they were so tiny. The Lilliputians also brought two barrels of drink, which he enjoyed, even though the barrels were smaller than a glass.

Gulliver was tempted, as he lay on the ground, to take up fifty of the small creatures in his hand and crush them, but he did not want to be pricked with arrows again, and he had promised to behave in exchange for good treatment.

After he had eaten, Gulliver promptly fell asleep because his drink had a sleeping draught in it. They then set about transporting Gulliver to the capital. They used a large platform with twenty-two wheels pulled by dozens of four-and-a-half-inch horses. They somehow managed to put him on the platform and dragged Gulliver down the road to the city. Suddenly Gulliver woke-up when the vehicle stopped. Two or three curious, young Lilliputians wanted to see how Gulliver looked when asleep. They climbed up into the engine, and advancing very softly to his face, put the sharp end of their half-pike into his left nostril. This tickled Gulliver's nose like a straw, and made him sneeze. As they started moving again, Gulliver saw that more than one hundred thousand Lilliputians had come out to see the strange giant. It was a carnival atmosphere and the Lilliputians seemed to be enjoying themselves, much to Gulliver's amusement. Finally, they arrived at the Emperor's palace. The Emperor was there to receive Gulliver. Gulliver was lodged in an old and disused temple. His leg was chained and he could only move about a little bit. After a few weeks, the Lilliputians and their Emperor decided that he meant them no harm. So Gulliver was set free to roam around Lilliput on condition that he would not harm them and would help them in whatever way he could. Gulliver agreed and was freed. He was provided with food and water, a house was built for him. Gulliver stayed with Lilliputians helping them in many ways. Once, it so happened, that the neighbouring kingdom of Blefuscu declared war on Lilliput. The king brought a hundred ships to mount an attack. The Lilliputians ran to Gulliver for help. The Emperor said, "Don't let us down now, Gulliver; we need your help."

Gulliver walked into the sea. He took a long rope, tied all the hundred ships together and dragged them in the water. Gulliver pulled the ships the whole day, going round and round until the army of Blefuscu was giddy and in no position to fight. The King of Blefuscu came begging for peace between the two kingdoms. The Emperor agreed. Gulliver was hailed as a hero and lived peacefully in Lilliput for many years.

Unit 1

1. White water rafting

The icy Himalayan heights are the source of a major chunk of India's rivers. The complex network of rivers flowing through valleys and forests are just perfect for adventure sport like the white water rafting. Among the other regions in the country, the Garhwal and Kumaon region in Uttarakhand is regarded as the best location for a perfect water adventure. The most suitable period for this watery performance is between September-November and March- May.

2. Paragliding

Paragliding has a huge following all over the world and is the recreational and competitive adventure sport. It is a relatively new sport in India. The major paragliding sites in India are Himachal Pradesh, Uttarakhand, Rajasthan and Maharashtra. The flying season spans September to December and then March to June.

3. Skiing

Skiing is a big craze worldwide. Gulmarg in Kashmir offers one of the largest facilities for this winter sport. The best part is that the snow conditions remain excellent from December to April. Meanwhile, the slopes in Garhwal and Kumaon are also ideal place for skiing in the winter months. Auli in Garhwal is currently rated as one of India's best skiing resort.

4. Snorkeling and scuba diving

While the sky and the mountains provide you with a good amount of adventure, the underwater ecosystems promise a stunning world of mysterious beauty exhibited in its marine flora and fauna. The areas around the Lakshadweep, Andaman and Nicobar Islands as well as Bay of Bengal present water sport lovers' opportunities to delve and dive deep inside the ocean's depths and enjoy the marvellous sights they have to offer.

Unit 2

Udhagamandalam –the Queen of Hill Stations

Udhagamandalam is located in the Western Ghats zone at an altitude of 2240 m. It is the headquarters of the Nilgiri District, where the two mountain ranges meet. Udhagamandalam, popularly called Ooty by the tourist, is the Queen of Hill Stations. Centuries ago this was also called as Oththai-Kal [single stone] Mandu [Mund is a name of Toda Village]. The British started calling it as Ootacamund. Coffee and Tea Plantations and trees like Conifers, Eucalyptus, Pine and Wattle dot the hill side in Udhagamandalam and its environs. Summer temperature is maximum of 25°C and a minimum of 10°C. During the winter it is a maximum of 21°C and a minimum of 5°C. This area was inhabited by the tribals called Toda long before anybody ventured into this region. Curiously enough, this slice of paradise remained unknown even during the periods of the great Southern Dynasties. It was the British who ventured into the region during early nineteenth century. In search of cooler climates development and modernization took place after their arrival. This was the Summer Capital of the Madras Presidency during the British Rule.

It is the pride of the Blue Hills and centre of attraction. This was formed by Mr. John Sullivan, the then Collector of Coimbatore in the year 1824. This is located in an area of 65 acres. Fishing was the major activity in this place. In the year 1973, Tourism Development Corporation, Government of Tamilnadu, on behalf of the Tourism Department took possession of this place for Boating activity, which provides another thrilling entertainment for the tourists.
