Exercise | Q 4 | Page 92

Explain the co-relation between the following.

Cold war and Non-aligned movement

Solution: The Cold War began after the end of the Second World War in 1945. It refers to a period of intense ideological hostility, build-up of armaments, the establishment of military alliances e.g., NATO, WARSAW Pact, etc., and even proxy wars such as in Korea and Vietnam. There were many efforts from 1945-1991 on the part of both superpowers to bring about detente i.e., reduction of hostilities and tensions e.g., Moscow Summit (1972). However, for most of this period, the world was divided into the Capitalist bloc (led by the USA and including England, France, etc.) and the Communist bloc (led by USSR and including East European nations).

There were a number of newly independent countries as well as some other Third World countries who did not want to join the military alliances of any power bloc. Through the initiative of Jawaharlal Nehru (India) and Marshall Tito (Yugoslavia), the NAM was formally established in 1961 at Belgrade. Other member countries included Ghana, Egypt, Sri Lanka, Indonesia, etc. Non-alignment is based on two main principles (i) independent understanding of world affairs (ii) peace approach. It does not mean political neutrality or passivity but active participation in world affairs without joining any power bloc or military alliance.

Explain the term - New Cold War.

Solution: Two events that occurred in 1979 change the course of detente.

- i. Islamic Revolution in Iran under leader Ayatollah Khomeini overthrew the rule of M.R. Shah Pahlavi. The new government withdrew from the CENTO alliance.
- ii. Soviet Union invaded Afghanistan in 1979 and installed Babrak Karma! as the President. The insurgent groups in Afghanistan (mujahideen) fought against this government (1979 - 1989).

New Cold War refers to the end of the period of detente and the return of tensions between the USA and the USSR.

Exercise | Q 5.2 | Page 92

What is a trade bloc?

Solution: A trade bloc is created when a group of nations make special agreements regarding their economic relationships with each other. The agreements generally focus on the relaxation or even elimination of trade barriers. The most common types of trade barriers are tariffs (taxes on imports) and quotas (limits on the quantities of various imports).

Solution: a

Exercise | Q 7 | Page 92

Answer the following in detail with reference to the given points

Elaborate the period of Detente.

- (a) meaning
- (b) initiatives taken by superpower to reduce tensions

Solution:

- a. Meaning of detente: Detente refers to efforts to bring about a reduction in tensions between the USA and the USSR. This was an attempt by the two 'superpowers' themselves. The Cuban Missile Crisis brought in a realization of a possible nuclear confrontation and the need to deescalate the tensions.
- b. Initiatives taken by the superpowers to reduce tensions: After the Cuban Missile Crisis, both USA and USSR made several efforts at reducing bilateral tensions (detente). This included - (a) a hotline was set up between main leaders of the two nations (b) signing of agreements such as NNPT, LTBT to reduce nuclear weapons (c) 1972, Moscow Summit between President Nixon (USA) and Brezhnev (USSR). Other initiatives were -
 - 1) Conference at Paris (1973) to bring the Vietnam crisis to an end.
 - 2) Helsinki conference on security in Europe (1975) was attended by 35 nations including USA and USSR. It aimed to reduce the tensions between eastern and western European countries.
 - 3) The first joint US-Soviet space flight was the Apollo-Soyuz Test Project (1975)
 - 4) The USA held a conference at Camp David in 1978 to resolve the long-pending Arab-Israeli dispute. The 'Framework for Peace in the Middle East' was signed between President Carter (USA) President Sadat (Egypt) and Prime Minister Begin (Israel).
