

Christmas Festival

4 Best Essay on “Christmas Festival”

Essay No. 01

All the countries and nations of the world have their own festivals. They are occasions of great joy. They give a change and relief to the tried and troubled minds of the people.

Christmas is the greatest festival for Christians. It is celebrated with great enthusiasm. It comes on the 25th of December of each year. On this day Lord Jesus Christ was born.

Great preparations are made. All houses and churches are whitewashed. They are decorated with buntings, flowers, and pictures. The shops are also decorated beautifully.

The Christians get a Christmas tree home on this day. The tree is put in the center of the house and decorated with lamps, toys, flowers, gifts, streamers, stars, etc. it looks very beautiful. On top of the tree, a fairy is put. All the members of the house get together and sing prayers in praise of Lord Jesus. Gifts are exchanged. Greetings and beautiful Christmas cards are sent to friends and relatives on this occasion.

On the day all houses have a beautiful feast on the table. It consists of the finest things that the family can afford. The lady of the house mingles with the guest with joy and enthusiasm. Mince pies, turkey, cake, pudding are some of the delicacies on the table. After the feast, everybody sings and dances. Children enjoy it a lot. On Christmas Eve everybody attends the midnight mass in the church. Children sing Christmas carols. Everybody prays that they may lead a happy life in the coming year.

The markets are very gaily decorated. Most of the big shops have special discounts and sales. Everybody gets into a frenzy of shopping. The whole atmosphere is carefree and gay. Christmas is indeed a beautiful festival.

Essay No. 2

Christmas

All the Christian countries of the world have their own festivals. The occasion of great joy. They give a change and relief to the tried and troubled minds of the people. All the Christian countries around the world celebrate this festival with joy and enthusiasm. In India too this festival is celebrated with joy. As India has a sizeable population of Christians, the festivities of this festival are almost the same as Dussehra or Diwali.

Christmas is the greatest festival of Christians; it is celebrated with great enthusiasm like Diwali of the Hindus. It comes on the 25th of December every year. It is the date when Jesus Christ was born. It is like Krishna Janmashtami of the Hindus

Great preparations are made. All houses and churches are whitewashed. They are decorated with buntings, flowers, and pictures. The shops are also decorated in a beautiful way. Rich and poor, all enjoy the festival.

The Christians plant a Christmas tree on this day. They cut the branch of a tree and plant it in a corner of the house. Then they decorate this tree with lamps and toys and flowers. At night, it looks very beautiful. All the members of the house sit together and sing prayers in praise of Lord Jesus. Guests and friends also join them. Christmas gifts are presented to them. Christmas gifts are presented to them. Christmas greetings and beautiful Christmas cards are sent to friends and relations on this occasion. All faces look bright with joy.

Then the people hold a feast. It consists of the finest things that the Christian family can afford. The lady of the house in her best dress moves about with great joy and enthusiasm. She takes pride in showing her clean plates, table cloths, and sweets. After the feast, they dance and sing. Most of the Christians, drink a little wine on this day. They enjoy dance and music very much. They dance in pairs, holding hands of each other. The children also do the same. The festival comes to a close late at night. All gather in the Church to pray to God. They pray that they may lead a happy life in the coming year.

It makes the people remember Lord Jesus who is thought by them to be the son of God. God sent him to save the people from sin and misery. He saved them and died on the cross for them. All those who have faith in him shall be saved. Thus this festival teaches them and their children to live a noble life of prayer, love, and sacrifice. The festival comes to an end amidst fun and laughter. It teaches us the value of love and sacrifice.

Essay No. 03

Christmas

Christmas is an important Christian festival. It is celebrated all over the world. It falls on 25th December every year. December 25 is the birthday of Jesus Christ.

Fairs are held and shops set up on this occasion. Before it comes, people decorate their houses, shops', establishments, churches, etc.

People in their best clothes attend the special services in Churches. They make Christmas cakes. It is a festival of feasting, rejoicing, and giving and receiving gifts.

The festivity begins on Christmas Eve with carol singing and an exchange of visits. It is a weeklong festival.

On the final day, there is a midnight mass, followed by the ringing of the bells ushering in the New Year.

Christmas trees are erected and there is a lot of fun and merry-making. The members of a family living in different places join together to celebrate Christmas.

1st January is New Year's Day. People exchange greetings and wish a happy New Year to one another. It is a public holiday and government offices etc. are closed.

Essay No. 04

The Christmas Festival

Christmas is the most important festival for Christians. It is celebrated on 25th Dec. as the birthday of Lord Jesus Christ. The Christmas tree is decorated with stars, lights, toys, etc. On this day. Cakes and puddings are served. Children get dressed in new clothes. Any 'person disguised as Santa Claus distributes sweets among the children. Prayers are offered in churches.

Every country and nation of the world has its own festivals. These are occasions of great joy. They give a change and relief to the tired and troubled minds of the people.

Christmas is the greatest festival for Christians. It is celebrated all over the world with great enthusiasm. It is the day when Jesus Christ was a horn. It is like 'Krishna Janamashtami' of the Hindus.

Great preparations are made. All houses and churches are white-washed and distempered. They are decorated with buntings, flowers, pictures, and wall posters. The shops are also decorated in a beautiful way. Young & old, Rich & poor, all enjoy the festival.

The Christians plant a Christmas tree on this day. They cut the branch of a tree and plant it in a corner of the house. Then they decorate this tree with lamps, toys, and flowers. At night, it looks very beautiful. All the members of the houses sit together and sing prayers in praise of Lord Jesus. Guests, friends, and relatives also join them. Christmas gifts are presented to them. Christmas greetings and beautiful Christmas cards are sent to friends and relatives on this occasion. All faces look bright with joy.

Then the people hold a feast. It consists of the finest things that a Christian family can afford. The lady of the house in her best dress moves about with great joy and enthusiasm. She takes pride in showing her clean plates, table cloths, and sweets. After the feast, they dance and sing.

Most of the Christians, drink a little wine on this day. They enjoy dance and music very much. They dance in pairs, holding hands of each other. The children also do the same. This is the way in which Christmas is celebrated and enjoyed. The festival closes late at night. Everybody gathers in the Church to pray to God. They pray that they may lead a happy life in the coming years.

It makes the people remember Lord Jesus who according to them is the son of God. God sent him to save the people from sin and misery. He saved them and died for them on the cross. All those who have faith in him shall be saved. Thus this festival teaches them and their children to live a noble life of prayer, love, and sacrifice for humanity.