

Write a Letter To a Husband away on Business, Family Letter

To a Husband away on Business

Your letter has overwhelmed me. I have read it at least a dozen times. You've been away exactly three weeks from today, but it seems more like three years to me! I've been so Longley without you.

Everything at home is fine (except that we miss you so much) I have been busy with the spring clearing. The weather here has lovely. It's almost like summer of day.

But I'm glad to hear you had such a successful trip this time. That order you got in Dehradoon is simply marvelous!

Are you coming directly home, or do you plan to make some stops on the way? I hope you'll be home in line for Babloo's birthday party. Babloo keeps asking every day when you'll be back.

I went to see your mother yesterday. Her cold is all gone; and she looks very well. Everything at home is fine (except that we miss you so much).

Let me know exactly what day you'll be at home. I want to have your favorite dinner

Love and kisses to you darling,

Yours and only yours,

Anuradha