

Preposition Exercises

Definition: A preposition is a word placed before a noun or a pronoun to show in what relation the person or thing denoted by it stands in regard to something else.

or example:

- There is a cow in the field.
- He is fond of tea.
- The cat jumped off the chair.

In Sentence 1, the preposition joins a noun to another noun;

In Sentence 2, the preposition joins a noun to an Adjectives,

In Sentence 3, the preposition joins a noun to a verb.

The noun or pronoun which is used with a preposition is called its objects. It is an Accusative case and is said to be governed by the preposition.

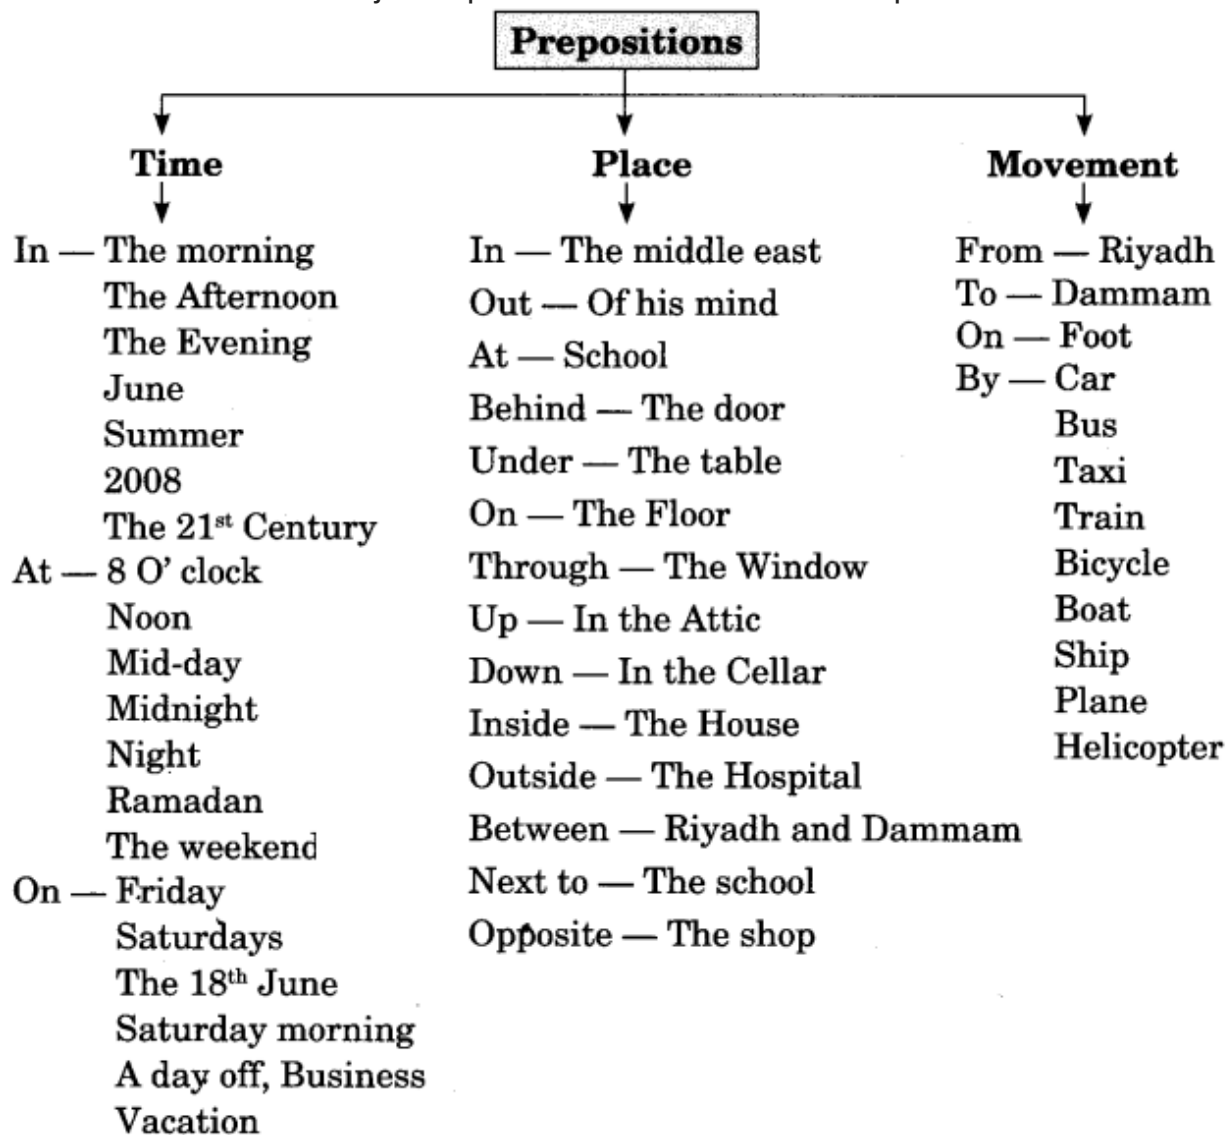

As, in sentence 1, the noun field is in the Accusative case, governed by the preposition in.

A preposition may have two or more objects; as, the road runs over hill and plain.

A preposition is usually placed before its object, as, which of these chairs did you sit on?

Note 1: When the object is the Relative pronoun that, as in sentence 1, the preposition is always placed at the end.

Note 2: Sometimes the object is placed first for the sake of emphasis.
