Q.1. Why was the Tawa Matsya Sangh formed?

Ans. (i) The Tawa Dam was built on River Tawa, a tributary of Narmada between 1958 and 1978.

(ii) People were displaced due to the dam.

(iii) Their livelihood was affected.

(iv) In 1994, the government gave the rights for fishing in Tawa reservoir to private contractors, who forced villagers to vacate the area.

(v) The villagers stood united and organised the Tawa Matsya Sangh to protest.
