

Classification

Everything on the Earth or in the Universe is not unique, it is identical with some other thing in various respects. Here, we are giving examples to develop understanding about the classification.

1. Pick the odd one out:

- | | |
|-------------------|-----------|
| (a) Nose | (b) Eyes |
| (c) Skin | (d) Teeth |
| (e) None of these | |

Answer: (d)

All others are sense organs.

2. Pick the odd one out:

- | | |
|-------------------|---------------|
| (a) Cone | (b) Circle |
| (c) Triangle | (d) Rectangle |
| (e) None of these | |

Answer: (a)

All others are geometrical figures.

3. Pick the odd one out:

- | | |
|-------------------|----------|
| (a) Venus | (b) Moon |
| (c) Pluto | (d) Mars |
| (e) None of these | |

Answer: (b)

All others are planets.

4. Pick the odd one out:

- | | |
|-------------------|----------|
| (a) Kite | (b) Bird |
| (c) Radar | (d) Jet |
| (e) None of these | |

Answer: (c)

All others are flying objects. Radar traces the objects in sky.

5. Pick the odd one out:

- | | |
|-------------------|-------------|
| (a) Lead | (b) Mercury |
| (c) Copper | (d) Iron |
| (e) None of these | |

Answers: (b)

All others are solid metals.