

Chennai

Chennai is the Capital of Tamilnadu. It is a commercial Centre. Textile, leather goods and motor car industries are the main activities. Therefore, Chennai attracts people from all over the country. English and Tamil are the dominant languages. It is an important port of the nation.

Women in the traditional clothes

St. George Fort

Climate of Chennai is hot and humid. It gets some rains in winter. People wear cotton clothes all round the year.

Map of Chennai

LOCATION AND CLIMATE

Chennai, the largest city in the Southern state of Tamil Nadu, is located on the South-eastern coast facing the Bay of Bengal. The climate of Chennai is warm and humid during summers. It receives rainfall during winters.

Textile Industry

Car Factory in Chennai

Chennai Port

People have special food like Dosa, idli sambhar, rasam and many others. Tamilnadu is associated with classical music and Bharatnatyam (a dance form).

Bharatnatyam

Food on banana's leaf

Masala-dosa

Things to Remember

- Chennai is the capital of Tamilnadu
- Main languages spoken in Chennai are English and Tamil
- Chennai is an important port of India
- Main industries are textile, leather goods, and motor car
- Climate of Chennai is hot and humid
- Tamilnadu is known for Carnatic classical music and Bharatnatyam