Distinguish between the following.

Initial Public Offer and Further Public Offer

SOLUTION

Initial Public Offer	Further Public Offer
1. Meaning: IPO refers to an offer of securities by an unlisted Public Company to the public for the first time.	FPO means an offer of securities by a listed Public Company to the public to raise subsequent capital.

2. Type of issuer company: It is issued by an unlisted Public Company.	It is issued by a listed Public Company.
3. When issued: It is usually issued by an existing company which wants to raise capital from the public for the first time.	It is usually issued by a listed Public company when it wants to raise further capital from the public.
4. Order of issue: IPO proceeds FPO. IPO is the first time sale of shares to the public. Initial Public Offer	FPO is always done after IPO. FPO is the second or subsequent sale of shares to the public.
5. Listing: Company has to get itself listed for the first time before issuing IPO,	Company making an FPO is already a listed company.
6. Risk: It is very risky for the investor as he cannot predict the company's performance.	It is less risky for the investor as he has an idea of the company's past performance and can judge its future performance.

Exercise 4 | Q 2 | Page 66

Distinguish between the following.
Fixed Price Issue and Book Building

SOLUTION

Fixed Price Issue Method	Book Building Method
1. Meaning: Under this method, the issue price of shares is mentioned in the prospectus and investors have to buy shares at that price only.	Under this method, the issue price is determined by a bidding process. The investors are given a price band and are asked to bid at a price within the band. This way company arrives at a price at which it will sell its shares.
2. Price of Shares: The exact price of shares is known in advance and it is mentioned in the prospectus.	The price of shares is not known in advance. Only the minimum price and maximum price at which the company is willing to sell the shares is known in advance.

3. Prospectus: Company has to issue a prospectus and it contains the details of the price at which shares are offered and the total number of shares offered by the company.	Company issues a Red Herring Prospectus. It contains only the price band and the total size of the issue.
4. Determination of Demand: Company comes to know the public demand for its shares only after closure of the issue	The company can know the public demand for its shares every day. The bids are registered in the book every day until the closure of the issue.
5. Payment of Application Money: Application money or entire money has to be paid by the investor at the time of submitting his application for shares.	Only application money has to be paid at the time of bidding. The money will be collected only after the issue price has been fixed.
6. When Used: It can be used for any issue i.e. Public Issues, Rights Issues, ESOS, etc.	It is usually used in Public issues i.e. IPO and FPO.

Exercise 4 | Q 3 | Page 67

Distinguish between the following.
Rights Shares and Bonus Shares

SOLUTION

Rights Shares	Bonus Shares
1. Meaning: In rights issues, shares are offered to the existing equity shareholders i.e. Company offers the shareholders the first option to buy the shares of the company.	Bonus shares are issued to the existing equity shareholders free of cost.
2. Payment: Subscribers have to pay for the Rights Shares. The company only gives them the right to buy these shares.	Bonus shares are issued free of cost to the shareholders.
3. Partly/fully paid up shares: Shareholders have to pay for these shares as Application Money, Allotment, Call Money, etc. till the full money on shares is paid up.	Bonus shares are fully paid up shares. So no money has to be paid by the shareholders to the company.

4. Minimum Subscription: Company has to obtain a minimum subscription. If the company fails to receive a minimum subscription, it has to refund the entire application money received.	There is no minimum subscription to be collected as Bonus shares are issued free of cost by the company.
5. Right to Renounce: The shareholders can renounce his shares.	Shareholders cannot renounce his bonus shares.
6. Purpose of Issue: Rights issue is done by a company when it wants to raise fresh funds but wants to give a chance to their existing members to increase their shareholding.	When a company has accumulated huge profits or reserves and the company wants to reward its existing Equity shareholders, the company issues bonus shares.

SOLUTION

Justification:

The following provisions company has to fulfill to issue Bonus Shares:

1. A company can issue Bonus Shares only out of:
  - Free reserves or
  - Securities Premium Account or
  - Capital Redemption Reserve Account
2. A company cannot issue Bonus Shares only out of reserves created by the Revaluation of Assets.
3. The company also cannot issue Bonus Shares instead of paying a dividend.
4. Once the announcement for Bonus Shares is made by the Board of Directors then it cannot be withdrawn.
5. Bonus shares are fully paid up shares. Shareholders cannot give away their Bonus shares to another person.
6. There is no minimum subscription to be collected.
Thus, it is rightly justified that, to issue bonus shares, a company has to fulfill certain provisions.
7. ESOS is offered by a company to its Permanent employees, Directors, and Officers.

Exercise 6 | Q 3 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

ESOS is offered by a company to its permanent employees, Directors and Officers

SOLUTION

Justification:

1. Employee Stock Option Scheme (ESOS) is a scheme, through which a company encourages employee participation in the business of a company.
2. Under this scheme, the company offers certain shares from the new issue to the whole time directors, officers, or employees of the company.
3. The company offers the shares at a predetermined price which is usually less than the price offered to the general public.
4. ESOS must be approved by passing a special resolution in the general meeting. Thus, it is rightly justified that, ESOS is offered by a company to its permanent employees, Directors, and Officers.

Exercise 6 | Q 4 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

Company has to fulfill general principles/rules for allotment of shares.

SOLUTION

Justification:

The following are the general principles/rules for allotment of shares.

1. Communication: The decision regarding allotment must be communicated to the applicants. It means the company should inform the investors in writing and then share the applicant and the company enters into a contract.
2. Absolute and unconditional: The allotment must be absolute and unconditional, i.e, it must be made on the same terms as stated in the application, No change in the terms of allotment or new conditions can be added at the time of allotment.
3. Proper authority: The allotment should be made by proper authority, i.e, Board of Directors of the company, or authorized committee on behalf of the Board of Directors. An allotment made without proper authority will be invalid.
4. Allotment against applications only: A company can allot shares only if it has received a written application for shares from the applicant. Thus, no valid allotment can be made on oral requests. It must be against written application only.
5. Reasonable time:
  - The allotment must be made within a reasonable time. Otherwise, the applicant is not bound to accept it, i.e, the applicant can reject it.

- As per the Act, allotment shall be done within 60 days of receipt of application money. The allotment can be made from the fifth day from date of the issue of prospectus. Thus, it is rightly justified that, the company has to fulfill general principles/rules for allotment of shares.

Exercise 6 | Q 5 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

A company can issue duplicate share certificate.

SOLUTION

Justification:

1. A company can issue a duplicate share certificate if the Original share certificate has been defaced,
  - mutilated or torn and is surrendered to the company.
  - It has been proved by the holder that the original share certificate is lost or destroyed.
2. In case of loss of share certificate, the company puts up a notice in the newspapers to announce the loss of the share certificate and asks the finder, if any, to return it to the company.
3. If the company does not get any response from the public, within the specified time, then the company can issue a duplicate share certificate.
4. A duplicate share certificate should be issued within three months from the date of application. The company issues it only to registered shareholders. Thus, it is rightly justified that, a company can issue a duplicate share certificate if the original certificate is lost, destroyed, or torn.

Exercise 6 | Q 6 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

Board of Directors have the authority to forfeit shares.

SOLUTION

Justification:

1. Forfeiture of shares is a process where the company forfeit the shares of a member or shareholder who fails to pay the call on shares or instalments of the issue price of his shares within a certain period of time after they fall due.
2. In other words, when the shareholder fails to pay the full amount of share which he agreed to pay in instalments the company can cancel his shares.

3. If a shareholder fails to pay calls on shares within a certain period, the Board of Directors, if authorised by the Articles of Association, can forfeit i.e. take away the ownership of a member.
4. The company will give 14 days' notice after 14 days if the shareholder does not pay the company will forfeit his shares and strike his name from the register of shareholders. Thus, it is rightly justified that, Board of Directors has the authority to forfeit shares.

Exercise 6 | Q 7 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

A member of a Public company can transfer shares.

SOLUTION

Justification:

1. Transfer of shares means the transfer of ownership of shares from one person to another. In other words, a shareholder can transfer the share to another shareholder.
2. Transfer of shares takes place when the shareholder wants to sell his shares or give as a gift to another person.
3. Shares can only be transferred by following the procedure laid down in the Articles of Association. A shareholder can sell either a part of a share or entire shares held by him.
4. In the case of public companies, shares are freely transferable subject to the provisions of the Articles of Association. Whereas, in the case of Private Company, there are restrictions on the free transfer of shares. Thus, it is rightly justified that, a member of a Public company can transfer shares.

Exercise 6 | Q 8 | Page 67

Justify the following statement.

The Board of Directors can refuse transfer of shares.

SOLUTION

Justification:

1. If a company refuses to register the transfer of shares, it shall send a notice of refusal to the transferor and the transferee or to the person giving intimation of such transfer within thirty days from the date on which the instrument of transfer was delivered to the company.

2. The notice should contain a valid reason for such refusal. The Board of Directors has the authority to refuse registration of transfer of shares. A member may appeal to the NCLT against the refusal by the Board within a period of thirty days from the date of receipt of the refusal notice.
3. If no notice is received, the member can appeal within 60 days in case of a Private Company and within 90 days in case of a Public Company.
4. Thus, it is rightly justified that, the Board of Directors can refuse the transfer of shares.

EXERCISE 7 [PAGE 67]

Exercise 7 | Q 1 | Page 67

Answer the following question.

Explain the classification of share capital.

SOLUTION

Meaning of Share Capital:

1. The term capital, in general, means the amount of money invested in a business. It includes not only the money invested at the time of inception of the business firms but also all the money invested subsequently.
2. The capital raised by the company by issuing Equity Shares and Preference Shares is called share capital.
3. Usually, in share capital, the proportion of Equity Shares is more than Preference Shares. The Companies Act uses the term capital in several senses.

The classification of Share Capital

1. Paid-up Capital and Calls in Arrears
2. Issued Capital and Unissued Capital
3. Called up Capital, Uncalled Capital, and Reserve Capital
4. Subscribed Capital or Unsubscribed Capital
5. Authorized Capital

(1) Paid-up Capital and Calls in Arrears:

- The Called-up capital may not be fully paid. Some shareholders may pay only part of the amount required to be paid or may not pay at all. Paid-up Capital is the part of called-up capital which is actually paid by the shareholders.
- The remaining part indicates the default in payment of calls by some shareholders, known as Calls in Arrears. In other words, the amount not paid by shareholders is called as Calls in Arrears or Unpaid Calls.

(2) Issued Capital and Unissued Capital:

- Issued Capital is that part of nominal capital which is issued to the public. Companies generally do not issue all its capital at once.
- They issue their capital in installments and so the issued capital is generally less than the nominal capital. It never exceeds the authorized capital.
- Whereas, Unissued Capital is the balance of nominal capital remaining to be issued to the public. The company can issue shares from the unissued capital, in the future.

(3) Called up Capital, Uncalled Capital, and Reserve Capital:

- The Called up Capital is the part of subscribed capital which the company has actually called upon the shareholders to pay.
- Called - up Capital includes the amount paid by the shareholder from time to time on the application, allotment, various calls, etc.
- The remaining part of subscribing capital not yet called up is known as Uncalled Capital. The Uncalled Capital may be converted into Reserve Capital by passing a special resolution.
- Reserve Capital is a capital that a company keeps aside a part of uncalled capital. It can be called up only in case of winding up of the company, to meet the liabilities arising then. It is kept reserved for the Creditors in case of the winding-up of the company.

(4) Subscribed Capital or Unsubscribed Capital:

- Subscribed Capital is that part of the issued capital which is taken up by the public. Sometimes, the public may not take up all the shares that are offered to the public, for a subscription.
- In such a case, the subscribed capital shall be less than the issued capital. If the public subscribe all the shares, it shall be equal to the issued capital
- Unsubscribed Capital is that part of the issued capital which is not allotted to the public.
- The unsubscribed capital is also known as Treasury shares, which are shares held by the corporation itself and have no exercisable rights.

(5) Authorised Capital:

- This is the amount of capital stated in the capital clause of the Memorandum of Association. It is also known as "Nominal Capital" or "Registered Capital". The company is entitled to raise finance by the issue of shares only up to the amount of authorised capital. However, the company can increase the amount of authorized capital by altering the Memorandum suitably. The promoters generally fix the amount of nominal capital after considering both the long-term and short-term requirements of the proposed company.

Exercise 7 | Q 2 | Page 67

Answer the following question.

Explain the two methods a company can use to make its public offer of shares.

SOLUTION

Public Issue or offer means offering the shares to the public. This is the most common method used by companies. The company invites the public to subscribe for its shares by issuing a prospectus.

The two methods a company can use to make its public offer of shares are as follows:

(1) Initial Public Offer (IPO): An Initial Public Offer (IPO) is a process of offering shares to the general public for the first time.

A public company makes an appeal to the general public to purchase its shares by issuing the prospectus.

The prospectus contains detailed information about the company, its project, and shares. It also includes an application form free of cost.

(2) Follow on Public Offer (FPO):

Follow-on Public Offering or Follow on Public Offer is the process of offering shares to the public, after the process of IPO. In FPO, the company goes for a further issue of shares to the general public with a view to diversifying its equity base. The shares are offered for sale by the company through the prospectus.

Exercise 7 | Q 3 | Page 67

Answer the following question.

Explain briefly the different types of shares offered by a company to its existing equity shareholders.

SOLUTION

The different types of shares offered by a company to its existing Equity shareholders are as follows:

(1) Rights issue:

- a. The Company issue shares to its existing equity shareholders in the proportion of shares holding by them. Such shares issued are called as 'Rights Issue' of shares. Under the rights issue, such shareholders are given pre-emptive rights to apply for new shares.
- b. However, if the shareholder does not opt to subscribe to such shares, then the company has the option to sell it to the general public.
- c. A company can make a Rights Issue when it is making a private placement.

- d. The main aim of issuing the right shares is to raise additional funds by offering shares to the existing equity shareholders.

The provisions related to Rights Issue are as follows:

- i. Rights shares are sold to the existing shareholders at a price which is lesser than its market price.
- ii. A company has to send a 'Letter of offer' to the existing shareholders at the time of issuing Rights shares.
- iii. The letter of offer shall mention:
  - The number of shares offered.
  - The period of offer i.e. offer is valid for a period not less than fifteen days and not exceeding thirty days from the date of the offer.
  - The right to renounce i.e. the shareholders have a right to give up their shares in favour of any other person.
- iv. The letter of offer can be sent by registered post, speed post, courier, or through electronic mode.
- v. If The shareholder does not respond to the Rights Issue offer within a stipulated time*, it is implied* that he is not interested in the offer and the company can offer the unsold shares to new investors.
- vi. The company has to obtain a minimum subscription i.e. 90% of the issue.

(2) Bonus issues:

- a. Bonus issues refer to the fully paid-up shares given to its existing equity shareholders without any cost, based upon the number of shares they have.
- b. Such shares are given by the company as a gift to its existing equity shareholder out of its profits or reserves.
- c. For this purpose, a certain proportion is decided. For instance, if a person holds 100 shares and the company declares 1:2 bonus issues, then for every 2 shares held, he gets 1 share free of cost.
- d. The process of issuing the bonus shares out of the company's profits or reserves is known as 'Capitalisation of Profits'.

Provisions related to Bonus Issues are as follows:

- i. A company can issue Bonus Shares only out of:
  - Free reserves or
  - Securities Premium Account* or
  - Capital Redemption Reserve Account*

- ii. A company cannot issue Bonus Shares only out of reserves created by Revaluation of Assets*.
- iii. The company also cannot issue bonus shares instead of paying dividend.
- iv. Once the announcement for Bonus Shares is made by the Board of Directors then it cannot be withdrawn.
- v. Bonus shares are fully paid up shares. Shareholders cannot give away their bonus shares to another person.
- vi. There is no minimum subscription to be collected.

Exercise 7 | Q 4 | Page 67

Answer the following question.

Explain the statutory provisions for allotment of shares.

SOLUTION

Allotment of Shares:

- (1) Allotment of shares means the company allots (to give) shares to the general public. Allotment means the distribution of shares among the applicants.
- (2) When a public company wants to issue the shares to the general public, it has to issue prospectus to invite the general public to subscribe to its shares.

Statutory provisions of allotment of shares

- 1. Registration of Prospectus
- 2. Oversubscription
- 3. Application money
- 4. Depositing the application money
- 5. Minimum subscription
- 6. Appointment of Managers to the issue and various other agencies
- 7. Permission to deal on Stock Exchange
- 8. Closing of the subscription list
- 9. Beginning of allotment work

The statutory provisions for allotment of shares are as follows:

- 1. Registration of Prospectus:
  - The Company has to file a copy of the prospectus with the Registrar of Companies (ROC) while raising its capital by issuing the shares to the general public.
  - When the company raises the capital privately, it has to prepare 'Statement in lieu of Prospectus'.

2. Over Subscription:

- In the case of oversubscription, the company has to refund the excess application money to the applicants.
- If it is failed to do so in the prescribed time then every officer of the company would be punishable.
- SEBI does not allow any allotment in excess of securities offered through offer document or prospectus.
- However, it may permit to allot not more than 10% of the net offer.

3. Application Money: The part of the face values of shares which are collected by the company along with share application, is known as 'Application Money'. Application money should not be less than 5% of the face value of the share. SEBI has specified (for public companies) the application money should not be less than 25% of the nominal amount of shares.

4. Depositing the Application Money: As per this condition, the company has to deposit the money into separate account known as 'Share Application Money Account' opened in a scheduled bank by the company. The company is not allowed to withdraw this amount.

5. Minimum Subscription: Minimum subscription is the minimum amount raised by the company for obtaining a trading certificate and to start the work of allotment of shares. This amount is mentioned in the prospectus.

- It must be collected within thirty (30) days from the issue of prospectus. The minimum subscription amount should be 90% of the issued capital.
- SEBI has stated minimum subscription should be 90% of the issue:
- Usually, when a company does not collect minimum subscriptions, it means its issue has been undersubscribed i.e. the number of shares applied for is less than the shares offered by the company.

- If a minimum subscription is not collected within the specified time, the entire amount received as application money should be returned to the subscribers within fifteen days of closure of the issue.

- To avoid such a situation, the company may enter into an underwriting agreement* with the underwriters.

6. Appointment of Managers to the issue and various other agencies:

- The company has to appoint one or more Merchant Bankers to act as managers to the public issue.

It also has to appoint:

- Registrar to the issue,
- Collecting Bankers,
- Underwriters to the issue and Brokers to the issue.
- Self-certified syndicate banks,
- Advertising agents etc.

7. Permission to deal on Stock Exchange:

- Every company, before making a public offer shall apply to one or more recognized Stock Exchanges to seek permission for listing* its shares with them. For this, the prospectus shall mention the name of the Stock Exchange.
- In addition, an application for permission to list in that stock exchange has to be made by the company.
- If permission is not given by the stock exchange, the allotment made shall be considered void.

8. Closing of the Subscription List:

- There is no provision in the Companies Act regarding the closing of the subscription list.
- But as per SEBI guidelines, the subscription list must be issued for a minimum of 3 and a maximum of 10 working days.
- In the case of the Rights issue, the subscription list is open for not more than 60 (sixty) days.

9. Beginning of allotment work:

- The company can start the work of allotment after 5 days of opening the issue (in case of filing of prospectus) and within 3 days (in case of filing statement in lieu of prospectus). This enables the member of the public to go through the prospectus thoroughly and decide.

Exercise 7 | Q 5 | Page 67

Answer the following question.

Explain briefly the procedure for allotment of shares.

SOLUTION

(1) Allotment of shares means the company allots (to give) shares to the general public. Allotment means the distribution of shares among the applicants.

(2) When a public company wants to issue the shares to the general public, it has to issue prospectus to invite the general public to subscribe to its shares.

Procedure for allotment of shares are as follows:

1. Appointment of Allotment Committee:

- When the subscription list is closed the secretary informs the Board of Directors to make preparations for allotment of shares. If the issue is par subscribed or under subscribed, the Board can do the allotment of shares.
- But if the issue is oversubscribed, the Board has to appoint an Allotment Committee to undertake the work of allotment.
- Allotment committee which consists of Directors and Secretary. This committee decides the basis of allotment and submits a report to the Board. It prepares the formula for allotment of shares.

2. Hold Board Meeting to Decide the Basis of Allotment:

- The secretary makes the necessary arrangement for the Board Meeting, to deal with the allotment of shares.
- Board Meeting is held to approve the allotment formula suggested by the Allotment Committee.
- Once the allotment formula is approved, the application and allotment lists are made.
- This list contains the names of the allottees i.e. the applicants who will be allotted shares. The list has to be signed by the Chairman and Secretary.

3. Pass Board Resolution for Allotment:

- The decision regarding the allotment of shares is taken at the Board. Hence, at the board meeting, a resolution is passed to allot shares.
- The resolution also authorises the Secretary to issue letters of allotment and letters of regret.

4. Collection of Allotment Money:

- The secretary must need to make the necessary arrangements with the company's bank for the collection of allotment money.
- The letter of allotment states the money to be paid by the applicant on the allotment of shares.
- The money has to be paid in the Bank specified by the company within the stipulated time. For all public issues and Rights Issues (from Jan. 2016) ASBA is mandatory.

5. Arrangement Relating to Letters of Renunciation:

- An applicant who has been allotted shares can renounce the shares in favour of another person.
- The applicant has to fill up a form for renunciation and submit it with the original copy of the letter of allotment to the company.
  - After approval from the Board, Secretary enters the name of the new allottees in the application and allotment list.

6. Arrangement Relating to Splitting of Allotment Letters:

- Splitting means putting the shares in one or more names. Sometimes, the applicant who has been allotted shares can request for the splitting of allotment letters.
- After getting the approval of the Board for the splitting, Secretary enters the details of the split in the list of split allotments. Secretary has to also issue split letters.

7. File Return of Allotment:

- A statement containing details of allotment is called 'Return of Allotment'. Secretary has to file a 'Return of Allotment with the Registrar of companies within 30 days of allotment of shares.
- The return of allotment contains details of allotment of shares including the names and addresses of allottees, the value of shares allotted, the amount paid or payable on each share, etc.

8. Prepare Register of Members and Issue Share Certificate:

- The secretary prepares the Register of members on the basis of share application allotment lists. Secretary has to enter the names of all those applicants who have paid the allotment money in the Register of Members.
- Secretary also has to prepare the Share Certificates and distribute it to all the members within two months of allotment of shares.
- A share certificate is issued in exchange for a letter of allotment and receipt of allotment money.
