

A volleyball match

Last Sunday, a volleyball match was played between our school team and the M.D. High School team. It was played in our school ground. It was a friendly match. Many spectators came to see the match. The students of both the schools had come to cheer their players.

The match started at 4p.m. Mr. Singh acted as referee. He blew the whistle and both the teams entered the ground. The players were in the respective uniforms. There was a toss. We won the toss and chose our side.

It was a well contested match. Our captain served a nice service. Our opponents failed to return it. We won five points.

Our opponents played well but they could not return it. We won five points. Our opponents played well but they could not return the ball. The game became brisk and interesting. Now our opponents equalized us in no time. It was a thrilling game. The spectators were charmed to see it. We won the first game by 15 to 10.

Then there was an interval. Both the teams took light refreshment. The game started again after sometime. It became brisk and exciting in no time. Our opponents wanted to win the second game. But our players played united. They handled the ball very tactfully. Our players delighted the spectators with their smashes. We won the second game too.

The match was over. Our players went mad with joy. We won the match by 2.0.