

Noses

The Little Fir Tree

Let's read and sing

Noses

0424CH02

I looked in the mirror
and looked at my nose:
it's the funniest thing,
the way it grows
stuck right out where all of it shows with two little holes where the breathing goes.

I looked in the mirror
and saw in there
the end of my chin
and the start of my hair
and between there
isn't much space to spare with my nose,
like a handle, sticking there.

If ever you want
to giggle and shout
and can't think of what to do it about,
just look in the mirror and then, no doubt,
you'll see how funny YOUR nose sticks out!

– Aileen Fisher

The Little Fir Tree

Shetty the magician was returning home, when all of a sudden it began to rain. It rained heavily. Shetty looked around for shelter and saw a pretty little fir tree. He ran towards it as fast as he could.

Soon the rain stopped. Shetty was happy that he did not get wet.

"Thank you, you have been kind to me. I would like to reward you. Ask for four wishes and I will grant them," said the magician.

The sad fir tree had leaves like needles and no birds ever made their nests on it. So it said, “I wish I had green leaves like my other friends.”

Next morning, its wish was granted. Soon a goat came along and ate all the green leaves. “Oh! dear,” said the fir tree. “I wish I had gold leaves as goats do not eat gold leaves.”

When the little fir tree woke up the next morning, it was surprised to see gold leaves.

“How happy I am!” it said.

Two men came along and stole the gold leaves.

“I wish I had glass leaves instead. Men do not steal glass leaves.”

The next day its glass leaves shone in the bright sun. “How happy I am!” it said.

At night the wind blew whoo...oo...oo. All the glass leaves broke.

“Oh dear!” said the fir tree. I like my old needle-like leaves best, for goats do not eat them.

No man can steal them.

The wind will do them no harm.”

The tree went to sleep. When it woke up the next morning, it had all its needles back again.

“Oh! I never was so happy,” said the little fir tree.

Unit 2

Poem : Noses

Story: The Little Fir Tree

The main aim of this Unit is to sensitise the child and make her/him feel happy with what she/he is or has. These expressions of inner feelings are not to be judged/labelled but may only be heard, seen and shared by you.

Give the children practice in observation and conversation. Let them talk freely about different type of faces and noses that they have seen. Bring the shy child into conversation while asking questions. Talk with them about the way they use their eyes, ears, nose and minds.

Develop the child's self-esteem and cultivate children's creativity. In the context of a fast changing world, it is imperative that we respect the children's wisdom and imagination.

How do we behave and see ourselves and how do others see us? Do they see us as kind, helpful or funny? Stress the three sides of a person. The one you think you are, the one others think you are, the one you really are.

Warm up

If you have a child in your class who you feel is not very confident, invite the little one to sit comfortably and then involve four/five children to share something they like about her/him as a friend. With exchanges and sharing in this way, you will very soon have a class where children relate to each other and participate in learning.

Avoid correcting them when they are speaking. The idea is to build confidence, and finally, fluency in speaking.

Reading time

Step 1 : Read the text aloud with voice modulation.

Step 2 : Let the children read the text along with you.

Sharing time

In this Unit involve children with 'a creative time' activity, for example, let them share with you their interest in speaking, writing, drawing (any other art form or paper activity). They can be encouraged to use this medium to express "Who am I? What do I want to be?" The activity helps the children to express their thoughts logically. They also learn to interact with each other. Divide the class into conversation groups. Help each child to think and talk about what he saw that morning – his father, baby sister, pet, etc. and ask them how they feel. They can illustrate this through pictures which can be displayed in the class.

Writing time

Help children improve their handwriting with practice but guide them by precept and discussion.

Handwriting suggestions can be put up on a chart for the class. Some of these can be to –

- (a) make the writing even
- (b) begin sentences with capital letters
- (c) end the sentences with periods or question marks
- (d) write the letters carefully on the line.

Creative time

- Ensure that the children's running handwriting is done in their notebooks.
- From the spellings that they have learnt from this lesson, let them construct meaningful sentences in their notebooks.
- Try to teach organisational skills. Let children make a poem on their eyes/ears, or on the peacock, our national bird, in their notebooks.
- Introduce the use of 'and' and 'but' through oral work to bring out the function of addition and contrast respectively.

Language corner : Let children be given sentences using is/are.

Environment

Segregation of class waste-paper and food articles into containers of biodegradable and degradable waste can be started in a simple, efficient and environmental friendly manner.
