Invitation to Lunch at a Restaurant

Dear Ashok,

Can you have lunch with me one day next week? There are one or two matters I should very much like to talk over with you and upon which I should value your opinion. Would Sunday suit you? If so, I suggest the Narula Restaurant at 12 o'clock. Let me know if this will be convenient and I will book a table.

Yours sincerely,

Naresh

Reply to above

Dear Naresh,

Make a note on your diary that our next kitty party is to be held at Ms. Vinita's residence at 441, Bhera Enclave on coming Sunday.

We shall be terribly disappointed if you do not come.

Please make it a point to attend.

We will start at about 4 p.m.

And remember a surprise awaits you !

The usual tambola, tea and dance and the chit-chat are there on the agenda without saying.

Yours sincerely,

Sarita
