I.   Annotate with reference to the context any THREE of the following: 3 × 5 = 15

(a)   Love is not love
       Which alters when it alteration finds,
       Or bends with the remover to remove:

(b)   Let us not slip the occasion, whether scorn,
       Or satiate fury yield it from our foe.

(c)   He has his summer, when luxuriously
       Spring's honied cud of youthful thought he loves
       To ruminate, and by such dreaming high is nearest unto heaven.

(d)   And it grew both day and night,
       Till it bore an apple bright:
       And my foe beheld it shine,
       And he knew that it was mine.

(e)   The Count your master's known munificence
       Is ample warrant that no just pretence
       Of mine for dowry will be disallowed;
       Though his fair daughter's self, as I avowed
       At starting, is my object.

(f) Love's not Time's fool, though rosy lips and cheeks
Within his bending sickle's compass come;
