

P.4 The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

by Samuel Taylor Coleridge

1. Look at the picture carefully and answer the questions given below:

1. What can you see in the picture? Does the man look happy? Give reasons for your answer.
2. Why does he have the bird hanging around his neck?
3. Have you heard of the expression-'having an albatross around your neck'? What do you think it means? Does it mean:
  - a. something that you can always be proud of
  - b. something that you have to do because you have no choice
  - c. something that is with you all the time as a reminder that you have done something wrong?
4. What is an albatross?

'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner' is one of the best known classical poems, written in English, containing some very beautiful and memorable lines. You may find that it needs some work and attention from you to understand it, before you are in a position to appreciate and respond to the beauty of the language that it contains.

'The Rime of the Ancient Mariner' is a ballad, i.e. it tells a story. Ballad poetry usually includes archaic words and spellings.

Since it is a long poem, only the first two parts have been included in this Unit. Your teacher will help you read the other five parts after you complete this Unit.

2. Listen carefully as the teacher reads out the first part of the poem to you or makes you listen to a recording of the poem.

The Rime of the Ancient Mariner

Part I

- It is an ancient Mariner<sup>1</sup>,
 And he stoppeth one of three.
 'By thy long grey beard and glittering<sup>2</sup> eye,
 Now wherefore stopp'st thou me?
- 5 The bridegroom's doors are opened wide,
 And I am next of kin<sup>3</sup>;
 The guests are met, the feast is set:
 May'st hear the merry din.'
- 9 He holds him with his skinny hand,
 "There was a ship," quoth<sup>4</sup> he.
 'Hold off! unhand me, grey-beard loon<sup>5</sup>!
Eftsoons<sup>6</sup> his hand dropt he.
- 13 He holds him with his glittering eye-
 The Wedding-Guest stood still,
 And listens like a three years' child:
 The Mariner hath his will.
- 17 The Wedding-Guest sat on a stone:
 He cannot choose but hear;
 And thus spake on that ancient man,
 The bright-eyed Mariner.
- 21 "The ship was cheered, the harbour cleared,
 Merrily did we drop
 Below the kirk<sup>7</sup>, below the hill,
 Below the lighthouse top.

- 1 Mariner - sailor
 2 glittering - shining brightly, with flashing points of light
 3 kin - members of your family
 4 quoth - said
 5 loon - a mad person
 6 Eftsoons - at once
 7 kirk - church

- 25 The sun came up upon the left,
Out of the sea came he!
And he shone bright, and on the right
Went down into the sea.
- 29 Higher and higher every day,
Till over the mast at noon-
The Wedding-Guest here beat his breast,
For he heard the loud bassoon<sup>8</sup>.
- 33 The bride hath paced into the hall,
Red as a rose is she;
Nodding their heads before her goes
The merry minstrelsy<sup>9</sup>.
- 37 The Wedding-Guest he beat his breast,
Yet he cannot choose but hear;
And thus spake on that ancient man,
The bright-eyed Mariner.
- 41 "And now the storm-blast came, and he
Was tyrannous<sup>10</sup> and strong:
He struck with his o'ertaking wings,
And chased us south along.
- 45 With sloping masts and dipping prow<sup>11</sup>,
As who pursued<sup>12</sup> with yell and blow
Still treads the shadow of his foe<sup>13</sup>,
And forward bends his head,
The ship drove fast, loud roared the blast,
And southward aye we fled.
- 51 And now there came both mist and snow,
And it grew wondrous cold:
And ice, mast-high, came floating by,
As green as emerald<sup>14</sup>.

---

8 bassoon - a musical instrument

 Did send a dismal sheen<sup>17</sup>:
 Nor shapes of men nor beasts we ken<sup>18</sup> -
 The ice was all between.
- 59 The ice was here, the ice was there,
 The ice was all around:
 It cracked and growled, and roared and howled,
 Like noises in a swound<sup>19</sup>!
- 63 At length did cross an Albatross,
 Through the fog it came;
 As it had been a Christian soul,
 We hailed it in God's name.
- 67 It ate the food it ne'er had eat,
 And round and round it flew.
 The ice did split with a thunder-fit;
 The helmsman<sup>20</sup> steered us through!
- 71 And a good south wind sprung up behind;
 The Albatross did follow,
 And every day, for food or play,
 Came to the mariner's hollo<sup>21</sup> !
- 75 In mist or cloud, on mast or shroud<sup>22</sup>,
 It perched<sup>23</sup> for vespers nine<sup>24</sup>,
 Whiles all the night, through fog-smoke white,
 Glimmered the white moonshine."
- 79 'God save thee, ancient Mariner,
 From the fiends that plague<sup>25</sup> thee thus!-
 Why look'st thou so?'-"With my crossbow<sup>26</sup>
 I shot the Albatross."

3. The teacher will now assign roles and ask you to read the poem aloud to show the poem written in the first person ( the parts in quotation marks spoken by the Mariner) and in the third person (where the narrator comments about the events taking place).
4. Here are some of the archaic words used in the poem; can you match them with the words used in modern English language that mean the same? The first one has been done for you as an example:

stoppeth	why
thy	entered
wherefore	stopped
stopp'st	you
thou	lunatic

dropt	stopping
hath	church

kirk	yes
paced	see foe	call
aye	trouble
ken	looking swound	your
hollo	said
plague	dropped
look'st	spoke

5. Using the words given above rewrite PART I of the poem in your own words. The first stanza has been done as an example:

8. There are a number of literary devices used in the poem. Some of them have been listed below. Choose the right ones and write them down in the table as shown in the example. In each of the cases, explain what they mean.

simile, metaphor, alliteration, personification. hyperbole, repetition,

1. The Wedding-Guest stood still, And listens like a three years' child:	Simile; the wedding guest was completely under the control of the mariner
2. Below the kirk, below the hill, Below the lighthouse top
3. The sun came up upon the left, Out of the sea came he
4. The bride hath paced into the hall, Red as a rose is she
5. And now the storm-blast came, and he was tyrannous and strong:
6. With sloping masts and dipping prow, As who pursued with yell and blow Still treads the shadow of his foe
7. The ice was here, the ice was there, The ice was all around

9. In groups of four, discuss what you think happens next in the poem. Share your views with the rest of the class.
10. The teacher will now read out the second part of the poem or assign parts to you and ask you to read the poem to the class.

Part II

- 83 "The sun now rose upon the right:
Out of the sea came he,
Still hid in mist, and on the left
Went down into the sea.
- 87 And the good south wind still blew behind,
But no sweet bird did follow,
Nor any day for food or play
Came to the mariners' hollo!
- 91 And I had done a hellish thing,
And it would work' em<sup>27</sup> woe<sup>28</sup> :

- For all averred<sup>29</sup>, I had killed the bird
 That made the breeze to blow.
 Ah wretch! said they, the bird to slay,
 That made the breeze to blow!
- 97 Nor dim nor red, like God's own head,
 The glorious sun uprist<sup>30</sup>:
 Then all averred, I had killed the bird
 That brought the fog and mist.
 'Twas right, said they, such birds to slay<sup>31</sup>,
 That bring the fog and mist.
- 113 The fair breeze blew, the white foam flew,
 The furrow followed free;
 We were the first that ever burst
 Into that silent sea.
- 117 Down dropped the breeze, the sails dropped down,
 'Twas sad as sad could be;
 And we did speak only to break
 The silence of the sea!
- 121 All in a hot and copper sky,
 The bloody sun, at noon,
 Right up above the mast did stand,
 No bigger than the moon.
- 125 Day after day, day after day,
 We stuck, nor breath nor motion;
 As idle as a painted ship
 Upon a painted ocean.
- 129 Water, water, every where,
 And all the boards did shrink;
 Water, water, every where,
 Nor any drop to drink.
- 133 The very deep<sup>32</sup> did rot: O Christ!
 That ever this should be!
 Yea, slimy things did crawl with legs
 Upon the slimy sea.

29 averred said firmly

31 slay to kill

30 uprist rose up

32 deep ocean

- 137 About, about, in reel and rout<sup>33</sup>
 The death-fires danced at night;
 The water, like a witch's oils,
 Burnt green, and blue, and white.
- 141 And some in dreams assured were
 Of the Spirit that plagued us so;
 Nine fathom<sup>34</sup> deep he had followed us
 From the land of mist and snow.
- 145 And every tongue, through utter drought,
 Was withered at the root;
 We could not speak, no more than if
 We had been choked with soot.
- 149 Ah! well-a-day! what evil looks
 Had I from old and young!
 Instead of the cross, the Albatross
 About my neck was hung."

11. Answer the following questions briefly

- In which direction did the ship start moving? How can you say?
- Why does the mariner say that 'no sweet bird did follow'?
- How did the other mariners behave towards the Ancient Mariner at first? How many times did they change their mind about the Ancient Mariner? What does this tell us about their character?
- How did the sailing conditions change after the ship had moved out of the land of mist and snow? What or who did the mariners blame for this change?
- What is indicated by the line 'The bloody sun, at noon,/Right up above the mast did stand,/No bigger than the moon'?
- How does the mariner describe the fact that they were completely motionless in the middle of the sea?
- What is the irony in the ninth stanza? Explain it in your own words.
- What is the narrator trying to convey through the description of the situation in the tenth and eleventh stanza?
- What or who did the mariners feel was responsible for their suffering?

- j. Describe the condition of the mariners as expressed in the thirteenth stanza.
- k. Why did the mariners hang the albatross around the neck of the Ancient Mariner?
- 12. Like part one, the second part also has a number of literary devices. List them out in the same way as you had done in question number seven and explain them.
- 13. What is the rhyme scheme of the poem?
- 14. Find examples of the use of interesting sounds (Onomatopoeia) from the poem and explain their effect on the reader.

1. The ice 'cracked and growled, and roared and howled'	Coleridge uses onomatopoeic words which use harsh 'ck' sounds to make the ice sound brutal. He also gives the ice animal sounds to give the impression it has come alive and is attacking the ship

- 15. The poem is full of strange, uncanny or supernatural elements. Discuss how these elements appear in the poem. You should consider:

- the strange weather;
- the albatross as a bird of "good omen"
- the spirit from "the land of mist and snow"
- the strange slimy creatures seen in the sea
- the ocean appearing to rot
- the death fires and sea water being referred to as witch's oil

Now write a paragraph about the supernatural elements in the poem and how they add to the events that take place in the poem.

- 16. Every ship is supposed to have a log book, which is filled in every day by the captain. If he dies, the next senior officer fills it in (usually the First Mate).. Decide on appropriate dates (the mariner's tale was supposed to be thought of as already very old when the poem was published: it should be no later than about 1700 AD; other clues to the date are the light-house and the mariner's crossbow). If you wish you can make the log look old by staining the pages, by your handwriting and spelling. Write a series of entries for the log of the important events that take place in the ship as recorded in the poem. The first one has been done as an example

1701 AD

Today we left the shore at 3.30 p.m. under glorious sailing conditions. We have 230 men on board. We are sailing with cargo towards Portugal. The journey is expected to take 90 days. We are well stocked with food and water to last us 250 days in case of any emergency. Hopefully we will not face any untoward happenings. God be with us!

You could also do this as an oral activity, recording the entries on audio tape and using voice effects and other sound effects if you can.

17. Performing the poem

This is a very dramatic poem, excellent for reading aloud or even dramatising. The class should be divided into groups and given the different dramatic moments from the poem to be performed as follows. Some of them are given below:

- the first storm that they encounter
- the time spent in the land of mist and snow
- the coming of the albatross and the subsequent events till they move out
- the killing of the albatross till they reach the silent seas
- the suffering of the sailors in the hot region till they hang the albatross around the Ancient Mariner's neck

18. The poem has seven parts to it. The class could be divided into five groups and each group be asked to read one part of the remaining poem. Each group would then have to report their findings. The report can be made interesting with illustrations/power point presentations. Help could be taken from the following websites:

19. After you have read the poem, discuss the following questions in your groups:

- i. Why did the Ancient Mariner stop the particular wedding guest to listen to his tale?
- ii. Why did he have to tell his tale to someone?
- iii. What is the poet trying to convey through this poem?
