

My Favourite Hobby

---

Introduction. A hobby is an amusement. Properly speaking, it is any interesting pursuit which we take up in our leisure hours. Kinds of Hobbies. (a) Collecting things such as stamps, flowers, pictures, old books, and curios. (b) Games and sports. (c) Photography, painting, wood-carving, etc. (d) Gardening. My Favourite Hobby. My favourite hobby is collecting stamps. I have an album in which I have pasted stamps of different countries, belonging to different periods. I have got some rare stamps — those that were introduced in China in 1912 when it became a Republic. These stamps tell me the history of the various nations. Some stamps have a romantic history attached to them. The Benefits of 'having a Hobby. It adds greatly to the zest for life. It fills our leisure hours with interest. It gives us something to occupy our minds with when we are incapacitated by old age for serious work.