

Notes

Novels, Society and History

Bankim Chandra Chattopadhyay

Munshi Premchand

CHAPTER COVERAGE

- The Print Culture created a Possibility of a New Form in Literature—The Novels
- History of the Growth of Novel Writing in Europe as well as in India
- Factors responsible for the Growth of Novels
- Reasons for Popularity

- The Impact of Novels on Common People, Women and Children.
- Types of Novels
- Eminent Authors and their Works between 17th and 20th Century
- Domestic Novels, Historical Novels, Serialised Novels, Epistolary Novels, etc.
- Indian Novels Written During the Same Period
- Eminent Indian Authors of Various Regions
- Novels Written in Industrial Age as well as During the Period of Colonialism
- Vernacular Press
- Role of Novels in Literature and in the Growth of Indian Nationalism