disappeared within a generation or so. The old family system is adapting itself to present-day conditions. In fact the whole face of India is altering, but the cultural tradition continues, and it will never be lost.

- Q. If you would be free from all physical aches and pains, and would enjoy perfect physical harmony ; then put your mind in order, and harmonize your thoughts. Think joyful thoughts ; think loving thoughts ; let the elixir of goodwill course through your veins, and you will need no other medicine.

2. Select one of the following passages and answer the questions that follow :

- a) No one knows how it happens, but early in life — sometimes even at birth — fatty deposits begin to build up in the coronary arteries.

Gradually, they can close an artery,

or a clot may form to close it suddenly.

Where an artery becomes blocked, the portion of the heart muscle it feeds, dies. This leaves scar tissue — it may be no larger than a small marble, but it can be half the size of a tennis ball. How serious the trouble is, depends on the size and position of the plugged artery.

- i) What sort of substances block an artery ? 1
- ii) At what stage of life is an artery likely to get blocked ? 1
- iii) How does the plugged artery affect the heart ? 1
- iv) What is the size of a scar tissue, caused by a blocked artery ? 1

b) The platforms were packed with people — Sikhs, Moslems, Hindus ; soldiers, merchants, priests, porters, beggars, hawkers. Almost everyone was barefoot and dressed in loose white garments. I would ask at least three people before I could find one who spoke English. We would talk world affairs and every major topic the news of the day produced. In this way I was trying to get a feel of the pulse of the nation, checking opinion against official attitudes and reports.

- i) How were the people on the platforms dressed ? 1
- ii) Why was the author in search of a person who knew English ? 1
- iii) What was the subject of conversation between the author and the English knowing person ? 1
- iv) What was the intention of the author in talking to the people ? 1

3: Answer two of the following questions in not more than 30 words each : $2 + 2 = 4$

10. Explain with reference to the context two of the following extracts : 4 + 4 = 8

a) This man is free from servile bands
Of hope to rise or fear to fall ;
Lord of himself, though not of lands,
And having nothing, he hath all.

b) The curfew tolls the knell of parting
day,

The lowing herd wind slowly o'er the
lea,

The ploughman homeward plods his
weary way,

And leaves the world to darkness,
and to me.

c) To serve therewith my Maker, and present

My true account, lest he, returning chide,

Doth God exact day-labour,
light-denied ?

I fondly ask ;
