(1.4) Read the following passage and answer the questions given below :

I knew Shahid's work long before I met him. His 1997 Collection, 'The country without a Post Office' had made a powerful impression on me. His voice was like none I had ever heard before at once and lyrical and fiercely disciplined, engaged and yet deeply inward. Not for him the mock-casual almost prose of so much contemporary poetry! his was a voice that was not ashamed to speak in a bardic register. I knew of no one else who would even conceive of publishing a line like; 'Mad heart, be brave'.

In 1998, I quoted a line from the country without a post office in an article that touched briefly on Kashmir. At the time all I knew about Shahid was that he was from Srinagar and had studied in Delhi. I had been at Delhi University, but although our time there had briefly overlapped, we had never met.
