- Formal letters

Informal letters

These are letters to friends and relations, or people you know well.

- Casual and light-hearted tone.
- Lengthier than a formal letter.
- Preferably I side of the page.

Structure:

- The sender's address should always appear on the top right-hand corner of the page.
- Include telephone number and email if available
- Greeting – There are several variations that can be used depending on how well you know the person: Dear Mary, Hi Mary, Greetings,
- Complimentary close – short comment, for example, Love, Lots of love, With thanks, See you soon

Layout for an Informal letter

Question 7.

Write a letter to your friend telling him how you have spent the summer vacation.

Answer:

557, Vivek Vihar
New Delhi
April 14, 20XX

Dear Rajeev,

I have received your letter. You have wanted to know about the how, I have spent my last summer vacation. Now I am writing you about it. You know that education is the backbone of a nation. No nation can prosper without education. But it is a matter of sorrow that most of the people of our country are illiterate and ignorant. They do not know how to read and write.

They have no knowledge of health, family planning and scientific method of cultivation. So I and some of my friends have decided that we would remove illiteracy and ignorance from our village. Finally we implemented our plan and spent the whole vacation in teaching the illiterate villagers. It was an enlightening experience. Villagers thanked us with their kind gestures.

Yours ever
Sameer

New Delhi
April 14, 20XX

Dear Renu,

Thank you for your letter. You wanted to know about the picnic that I enjoyed one week ago. Now I am giving you a short description about it. Only the students of our class and some teachers took part in it. We went to Lodhi garden. The place is very rich in natural scenery. We started our journey at 9 in the morning and reached there within an hour. We had a lot of fun there. We played games and ate plenty of food. We also enjoyed the scenery of nature. I personally enjoyed the bus journey to and from the spot. Really it was a very enjoyable and interesting picnic to me. I shall not forget this picnic. With best wishes and love.

Yours ever
Hema

15th May 20XX

Dear Father,

I received such a nice gift from you on my birthday. My joy knew no bounds. This book gives me a lot of knowledge of vocabulary. Although a good number of my friends and relatives attended the birthday party, yet I missed you all the time. My friends and relatives gifted me many things but your gift of a dictionary is unique in many aspects. This gift is a great source of joy for me. It will help me to cultivate the habit of reading good books. I shall preserve and treasure it throughout my life.

Yours lovingly
Sushmita

Question 14.

Your uncle sent you a book for a birthday present. In about 100-125 words, write a letter to your uncle, thanking him for the gift.

Answer:

213, Sarvapriya Vihar
New Delhi
12th December 20XX

Dear Uncle,

Thank you ever so much for the book you have sent me. It was good of you to remember my birthday. You have sent me such an interesting book to read. I have often heard people talk about Kupfer's Legends of Greece and Rome. I always liked to read it. Now I have it for my own. I feel very proud of it.

I am glad you did not send me an ordinary school – book, most of which are very dry. I began reading the book soon after I received the parcel. It was so exciting that I could not go to bed until I finished it. I shall work hard at my English now so that I can read such books easily. Again thanking you for the nice present and the pleasure it has given me.

Your lovingly
Sneha.
