Working with the Text

(A) What trees does Mr. Wonka mention? Which tree does he say lives the longest?

Answer:

Mr. Wonka mentions Douglas fir, Oak, Cedar and Bristlecone pine trees in his conversation with Charlie. He says the Bristlecone pine trees that grow upon the slopes of Wheeler Peak of Nevada in U.S.A lives the longest.

(B) How long does this tree live? Where can you find it?

Answer:

The tree lives for over 4000 years. It could be found growing upon the slopes of Wheeler Peak in Nevada, U.S.A.

2. How many of the oldest living things can you remember from Mr. Wonka's list? (Don't look back at the story!) Do you think all these things really exist, or are some of them purely imaginary?

Answer:

Some of the oldest things from Mr. Wonka's list are;

1. A 4000yrs old Bristlecone pines' sap
2. A 168yrs old Russian farmer's toe nail
3. A 200yrs old tortoise's egg belonging to the King of Tonga
4. A 51yrs old Arabian Horse's tail
5. A 36yrs old Cat's whiskers
6. A 207yrs old Giant Tibetan Rat's tail
7. A 97yrs old Grimalkin's black teeth

I think most of these things do not exist except for maybe the pine trees and the tortoise egg.

3. Why does Mr. Wonka collect items from the oldest things? Do you think this is the right way to begin his invention?

Answer:

Mr. Wonka collects these items from the oldest things because he wants to invent a portion which makes people grow old. He is obsessed with his work and collects everything that is old even if it's a bit odd. No, I don't think this is the right way to begin his invention.

4. What happens to the volunteer who swallows four drops of the new invention? What is the name of the invention?

Answer:

The moment the volunteer swallowed the new portion he began wrinkling and shrivelling, his hair started dropping off and his teeth started falling out. He suddenly transformed into a seventy-five years old man. Mr. Wonka named the new invention Vita-Wonk.

Writing

(A) Make a list of the trees Mr. Wonka mentions. Where do these trees grow? Try to find out from an encyclopaedia. Write a short paragraph about two or three of these trees.

Answer:

Douglas fir, Oak, Cedar, Pine

Douglas fir- It is an evergreen tree that grows in the coniferous forest of North America. It's tall and grows up to 100m in height. The leaves are flat and soft, and grow on the upper branches. It is use as the Christmas.

Oak- It is a shrub tree and has many species growing in many parts of the world. It grows in dense forests. It has a thick trunk and used to obtain wood for making furniture.

Cedar- It a coniferous tree that grows in many places including the Himalayas. It is a tall tree with small rough leaves and the wood is used for making furniture.

Pine- It a coniferous tree that grows in hilly area, native to many parts of the world. It is a resinous tree and secrets a thick sticky sap which has medicinal properties. The pine cones are the woody fruit of the tree and used as a piece of decoration.

(B) Name some large trees commonly found in your area. Find out something about them (How old are they? Who planted them? Do birds eat their fruit?), and write two or three sentences about each of them.

Answer:

Some large trees commonly found in my area are:

Neem: The tree is 10yrs old and was planted by our society gardener. It has medicinal value but the leaves are bitter and be eaten. It has dark green leaves, light yellow flowers and doesn't bear any fruits.

Frangipani: The tree is a 14-year old and was planted by my mother in our backyard when we moved to this house. It has long dark green leaves and white flowers. The flowers smell nice and my grandmother uses them for her morning prayers.

Dad and the Cat and the Tree – Working with the Poem

1. Why was Dad sure he wouldn't fall?

Answer:

Dad was sure that he wouldn't fall because he was a climber and believed that climbing a tree is a child's play.

2. Which phrase in the poem expresses Dad's self-confidence best?

Answer:

The phrase "Fall?... A climber like me? Child's play, this is! You wait and see." expresses Dad's self-confidence the best.

3. Describe Plan A and its consequences.

Answer:

Plan A entailed using the ladder to bring down the cat but it slipped and as a consequence, Dad fell on the flower bed.

4. Plan C was a success. What went wrong then?

Answer:

Plan C was a success where Dad climbed the garden wall and jumped onto the tree without falling off. What went wrong was that he landed straight on the cat who sprang to the ground yelling and Dad got stuck in the tree instead.

5. The cat was very happy to be on the ground. Pick out the phrase used to express this idea.

Answer:

The cat was very happy to be on the ground as expressed in the phrase 'Pleased as Punch'. It was smiling and smirking like a smug thereafter.

6. Describe the Cat and Dad situation in the beginning and at the end of the poem.

Answer:

At the beginning of the poem, the Cat was stuck in the tree and Dad was trying to get it down but the situation was reversed. In the climax of the poem, we saw the Cat on the ground smiling and smirking mischievously while Dad ended up stuck in the tree in its place.

7. Why and when did Dad say each of the following?

- (i) Fall?
- (ii) Never mind
- (iii) Funny joke
- (iv) Rubbish

Answer:

(i) When Dad was asked to be careful and not to fall, he said ‘fall?’ in an unbelievable questioning tone since he was over confident of his tree climbing skills.

(ii) When Dad slipped and landed in the flower bed, at that time he said ‘never mind’ because he had other plans to execute.

(iii) When Dad was warned for the second time by mother and asked to be careful not to fall again, in that moment Dad remarked ‘funny joke’ because he still had a third plan left to execute.

(iv) When Dad asked to stop trying to climb the tree or else he could get his neck broken, then Dad rebuffed the anxious mother with the remark ‘rubbish’ as he was annoyed by her lack of confidence in him.

8. Do you find the poem humorous? Read around lines which make you laugh.

Answer:

Yes, the poem is humorous and the end is very funny. Dad's remark "Easy as winking to a climber like me!" after his second failed attempt made me laugh hard at his optimism.
