

Chapter 1.2: The Thief's Story

WARMING UP! [PAGE 7]

Warming up! | Q 1. (a) | Page 7

Read the following incident.

Lokesh had always been a class-topper in tests and examinations. However, invariably, he used foul means during exams to gain those high marks.

Once, on the day of History examination, Lokesh realized that his classmate and friend Farhan came all prepared for Maths instead of History. Farhan had become desperate. So Lokesh offered to let him copy from his answer-sheet since Farhan sat just behind him.

Farhan refused. He said, "It's all right even if I get a zero, but I can call it my own zero. I do not want to score a single mark, unearned. Cheating in exams is for cowards. Not me!"

These words were a turning point in Lokesh's life. He gave up cheating forever. He worked hard for what he desired and never, ever used false measures to acquire anything.

Read the following incident.

Lokesh had always been a class-topper in tests and examinations. However, invariably, he used foul means during exams to gain those high marks.

Once, on the day of History examination, Lokesh realized that his classmate and friend Farhan came all prepared for Maths instead of History. Farhan had become desperate. So Lokesh offered to let him copy from his answer-sheet since Farhan sat just behind him.

Farhan refused. He said, “It’s all right even if I get a zero, but I can call it my own zero. I do not want to score a single mark, unearned. Cheating in exams is for cowards. Not me!”

These words were a turning point in Lokesh’s life. He gave up cheating for ever. He worked hard for what he desired and never, ever used false measures to acquire anything.

Summarize the incident in 6 to 8 lines making Lokesh, the narrator:

Begin with: ‘I was always a class topper.

SOLUTION

I was always a class topper in tests and examinations. However, I have to accept that I invariably used false means to gain those high marks.

Once, on the day of the History examination, Farhan became desperate as he had come prepared for Maths. Instead of History. I offered to let him copy from my answer sheet, but Farhan refused, saying that he did not want to score a single unearned mark, and that cheating was for cowards. This was the turning point in my life, and from that day I gave up cheating and learned to work hard for whatever I wanted.

English workshop | Q 7 | Page 13

Write a character sketch of 'Hari Singh' with the help of the following points, using the paragraph format.

- Hari Singh's background
- His dishonesty
- His aspirations
- His courage to change himself

SOLUTION

Hari Singh was fifteen years old, but already an experienced and fairly successful thief. He used to change his name frequently so as not to get caught by his former employers, whom he must have cheated, or by the police. He even cheated Anil when he went to buy the daily supply of groceries. However, he wished to get an education so that he could become a big and respected man, who would be able to achieve a lot.

He stole a large sum of money from Anil, but regretted it when he realized that in doing so he had lost his only chance of getting an education. He is courageous enough to return the money, even though he knows that he may be caught in the process. However, his desire to change himself is so great that it motivates him and gives him courage to return to Anil

Anil	Who's that? Hari? What are you doing?
Hari	Um nothing; I was just seeing if your money was safe.
Anil	You mean you were trying to steal my money. You are dressed; you were planning to rob me and run away! Yes, that's it!
Hari	I'm sorry, Anil, I'm sorry.
Anil	How can you steal from the hand that feeds you? I thought you would have improved! Don't you want to read and write properly? Do maths?
Hari	I did not think about it. I'm sorry, really sorry.
Anil	Alright, I'll overlook this, providing you promise me never to steal again, from me or from anyone else.
Hari	Yes, yes, I promise. Will you really forgive me and continue to teach me?
Anil	Yes. I hope you keep your word.
Hari	Thank you. I'll keep my word. I promise. Sorry once again.
