

IAS Mains Political Science 2006

Paper II

Section A

1. Comment on any three of the following in about 200 words each: (20 × 3 = 60)
 - a. International politics, like all politics, is a struggle for power. Comment.
 - b. Input-output functions of political system.
 - c. A well-established system of collective security is a guarantee of world peace. Explain.
 - d. International Court of Justice.
2. Analyse and evaluate the role of decision-making theory as a tool of foreign policy analysis (60).
3. Few agencies of International co-operation have been more successful in tending to the welfare of humanity than the I. L. O Discuss the organization of activities of the International Labour Organization in the light of the above statement (60).
4. The establishment of South Asian Association for Regional Co-operation (SAARC) has opened the targets of mutual co-operation among the State of South Asia. In the light of this statement examine Indias role in the South Asian region (60).

Section B

5. Comment of any three of the following in about 200 words each: (20 × 3 = 60)
 - a. Give a critical estimate of Indias role in the Non-Aligned Movement
 - b. India and the emerging International Economic Order.
 - c. Oil crisis: Its impact on Indias development strategy.
 - d. Indias Foreign Policy could have matched with the fast-changing international system.
- Discuss it.
6. Give a arguments in defence of Indias approach to Comprehensive Test Ban Treaty (CTBT) (60).
 7. Discuss the present state of Indo-Russian relations (60).
 8. Give a critical account of Indias rule in the affairs of the Third World countries (60).