

The Monkey and Two Cats

---

Once there two cats. They found a piece of bread. They couldn't agree on how to divide it. They went to a monkey to seek his help in the matter. The monkey was clever fellow. He haphazardly divided the piece of bread into two. He told that this division is not correct and ate the smaller piece. He repeated the process of breaking the piece of bread randomly and eating up the smaller piece, till he had eaten up the whole piece of the bread.

Moral: always choose an honest judge.
