(1) Della had saved one dollar and eighty-seven cents.

(2) Della wanted to buy Jim a Christmas present

(3) Della's beautiful hair fell about her rippling and shining like a cascade of brown waters.

2. Answer the following questions:

(a) How much did Della save for Christmas? What does it show?

Ans. Despite Saving every penny she could for months, Della managed to save only $1.87. This indicates that Jim and Della were not well to do.

(b) Why did Della take pride in the beauty of her hair? think she did will?

Ans. Della's beautiful hair that fell about her rippling and shining like a cascade of brown waters, which she was proud about.

(c) Why and how did Della sell her hair? Do you

Ans. Della sells her hair to Madame Sofronie for twenty dollars, which was just enough money to buy a platinum fob chain for which costs twenty one dollars. Della made a mistake by selling her hair because Jim had brought a comb for her. Which became useless since she already cut off her hair.

(d) Why did Jim sell his gold watch? Do you think he did well?

Ans. Jim sold his gold watch, which belonged to his father and grandfather, so that he could buy a set of beautiful combs that Della yearned for. Jim made a mistake by selling his watch to buy the combs because Della had already sold her hair to buy him a platinum chain for his gold watch.

(e) Why did Jim and Della want to present the gifts?

Ans. Jim and Della wanted to present the gifts to show their affection and appreciation for each other.

(f) Why did Della feel sad on losing her hair?

Ans. Della felt sad because although she got the combs that she yearned for, she no longer had her beautiful, long hair.

(g) What did Jim bring out from his coat? Describe the scene

Ans. Jim drew a package from his overcoat pocket and threw it on the table. Della opened the packet and was delighted to see that Jim had gifted her the combs that she had craved for. However, she immediately felt sad and when she realized that she had cut off her hair and the gift would not be of any use to her.

(h) How beautiful was the gold watch chain? Would you have liked to own

Ans. Della bought a platinum fob chain that was simple and chaste in design. She described the chain as having the qualities of quietness and value—a description that applied to Jim well.

(i) How did the Magi want to celebrate their Christmas (OR) who were the first people to give Christmas gifts?

Ans. The magi were three wise men who brought gifts to Baby Jesus in the manger in a biblical story of Christmas. It is from there that the art of giving Christmas presents was invented.

(j) What is the moral of the story?

Ans. jim and Della impulsively buy gifts for each other by sacrificing their greatest treasures without thinking about the consequences and focusing on making each other happy. They thought only of the material possessions that could give us pleasure However, what they didn't realize is that they had given each other the greatest gift of sacrificial love. The story teaches us that selfless love is worth more than any material possessions money can buy.

(4) You hope a loud siren will do this	SUBSIDE
(5) Troublemakers do this	INSTIGATE

Ans. COMBS

7. Complete the following basic plot diagram:

8. Pick out from the story words that mean the following.

Against each consumer write (N) if it is a Noun (v) for Verb and (Adj) for Adjective.

Phrase	Word From the passage	Part of speech
(1) Reluctance to spend money	Parsimony	Noun
(2) Relating to	Appertaining	Verb

(3) Urge	Coax	Verb
(4) Reduce in value	Depreciate	Verb
(5) Wisdom	Prudence	Noun
(6) Very huge	Mammoth	Adjective
(7) Foolishness	Idiocy	Noun
(8) Relating	Repetative	Part of speech

9. Think and answer on your own in a few sentences, in your notebook,

(a) What would you do if you ran short of money, to buy a birthday gift for one of your parents/ siblings?

Ans. If I ran short of money to buy a gift for one of my parents/siblings, I would borrow from someone else close to me. For example, if I wanted to buy a bag for my sister and fell short of money, I would ask my mother to lend it to me. If I wanted to buy something for Mom and did not have the money for it, I would borrow from dad.

(b) Think of two alternatives that could have presented Della as well as Jim from selling the most precious possessions.

Ans. Both knew that they were poor and couldn't afford expensive gifts. So they could have just given each other small token gifts of flowers or cards. This would have prevented them from selling their most precious possessions.

(c) Justify the little of the story. 'The Gift of the Magi'.

Ans. The Magi were three wise men who brought gifts for baby Jesus during Christmas. They knew how to give and gave unique gifts with special emphasis. In the same way, Della and Jim gave each other unique gifts. The author compares their giving to the gifts the Magi gave to baby Jesus. He calls them the Magi because of their wisdom in realizing that unselfish love is the greatest of all gifts.

(d) Gifts that you buy have fixed prices/ eates. How can the buyer increases the value of a gift baught for someone very dear in the family?

Ans. The buyer can increase the value of a wft bought for someone very dear in the family by wing it with words of love and gratitude. He/She can also write something loving on a card and attach it to the gift.

(e) What situation is the climax of the story? How does it end up as an Anti-climax?

Ans. The climax should have been the happiness and joy on the faces of Jim and Della when they see their gifts. It ends up as an anti-climax because though they had got what they coveted, neither of them could now use the gifts.

(f) If you shared this story with some friends in a junior class, how would they react in the end?

Ans. They would probably just feel that all the sacrifice was wasted. They would not have realized the deeper meaning of the story.

(g) What were the very first people to give Christmas gifts? What had inspired them to do so?

Ans. The Magi visited Jesus after his birth to give gifts to honour him.

(h) In the foot note after the story, O Henry remarks that of all who give gifts, Della and Jim were the wisest. Think and Explain this paradoxical remark.

Ans. Jim and Della were initially foolish enough to believe that they needed to give material gifts in order to show their love for one another and that they had to sacrifice their most precious possessions to do so. However, they were also wise enough to know later that unselfish love is the greatest of all gifts.
